FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 3, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to remove political disabilities from certain citizens of Georgia, who have been elected to the Legislature and other offices. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. THAYER presented a bill granting land to the Iowa and Missouri State Railroad Company. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. DRAKE presented a petition of over fifty Presidents of railroads praying for the extension of the subsidy to the Eastern Division of the Pacific Railroad. Referred.

Mr. COLE presented a petition of a company formed to build a telegraph line from the Pacific coast to China and Japan, and praying for certain privileges.

Mr. SUMNER offered resolutions, which were placed on the calendar and ordered to be printed, declaring the constitutional responsibility of Senators for their votes on impeachment:

WHEREAS, A pretension has been put forth to the effect that the vote of a Senator on an impeachment is so far different in character from his vote on any other question, that the people have no right to criticise; and

WHEREAS, Such pretension, if not discountenanced, is calculated to impair that freedom of judgment which belongs to the people on all that is done by their representatives, therefore, in order to remove all doubts on the question, and to declare the constitutional right of the people in cases of impeachment,

Resolved, That even assuming that the Senate is a Court in the exercise of judicial power, Senators cannot claim that their votes are exempt from the judgment of the people; that the Supreme Court, when it has undertaken to act on questions essentially political in character, has not escaped this judgment; that the decision of this high tribunal in support of slavery has been openly condemned; that the memorable utterance known as the Dred Scott decision was indignantly denounced and repudiated, while the Chief Justice who pronounced it became a mark of censure and rebuke, and that plainly; that the vote of Senators on impeachment cannot enjoy an immunity from the popular judgment, which has been denied to the Supreme Court with Taney as Chief Justice.

Resolved, That the Senate is not, at any time, a Court invested with judicial power, but that it is always a Senate with specific functions declared by the Constitution; that according to the express words the judicial power of the United States is vested in our Supreme Court, and such inferior courts as Congress may ordain and establish, while it is further provided that the Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments, thus positively making a distinction between the judicial power and the power to try impeachment; that the Senate on an impeachment does not exercise any portion of the judicial power, but another and a different power, exclusively delegated to the Senate, having for its sole object removal from office and disqualification therefrom; that by the terms of the Constitution there may be, after conviction on impeachment, a further trial and punishment according to law, thus making a discrimination between a proceeding by impeachment and a proceeding according to law; that the proceeding by impeachment is not according to law, and not attended by legal punishment, but is of an opposite character, and from beginning to end political, being instituted by a political body and on account of political offences, being conducted before another political body having political power only, and ending in a judgment which is political only; therefore, the vote of a Senator on impeachment, though different in form, is not different in responsibility from his vote on any other political question, nor can any Senator on such occasion claim immunity from that just accountability which Representatives at all times owe to their constituents.

Resolved, That Senators in all that they do are under the obligations of an oath, binding them to the strictest rectitude; that on impeachment they take a further oath, according to the requirement of the Constitution which says, Senators, when sitting to try impeachment, shall be on oath or affirmation; that this simple requirement was never intended to change the character of the Senate as a political body, and cannot have any such operation; and therefore, Senators, whether before or after the supplementary oath, are equally responsible to the people for their votes, it being the constitutional right of the people at all times to sit in judgment on their representatives.

Mr. CHANDLER called up the bill to regulate the foreign coasting trade of the United States on the northwestern and northeastern coasts.

Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, thought the bill as at present framed would allow masters to perpetrate any fraud they pleased; that it would give great facility for smuggling; that the fees are so largely reduced as to materially affect the revenue; that the present rates have given satisfaction, and that the penalties for violations of the law, instead of being twenty, should be one hundred dollars.

Mr. MORRILL, (Me.) proposed amendments to meet most of the grounds of objection, which were agreed to and the bill passed.

The bill to extend the time for the completion of the Southern Pacific Railroad of California was passed.

The bill to provide a temporary government for the territory of Wyoming was considered, amended and passed.

The bill to make eight hours a legal day's work in the Government workshops was adopted.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported the following amendment to the bill reported January 16th, relating to United States notes:

To strike out all after the enacting clause and insert as follows: That any contract hereafter made specifically payable in coin shall be legal and valid and may be enforced according to its terms, anything in the several acts relating to United States to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. HENDRICKS moved to take up the bill to make eight hours a day's labor in the Government workshops.

Mr. TRUMBULL urged the consideration of the bill for the admission of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia and Florida.

After some discussion and without action, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The SPEAKER presented several communications, including a letter from the Secretary of War with communications from General Sheridan relative to Government aid to the Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division.

Mr. BURR proceeded to congratulate the House and country on the Democratic victory in Oregon, but Mr. FARNESWORTH called for the regular business, and the House proceeded to the consideration of the Ohio contested election case.

Mr. MORGAN, sitting member, concluded his argument.

Messrs. Scofield, Schenck and Davis spoke in favor of the claim of the contestant.

The previous question was seconded, and the resolution giving the seat to Mr. Delano was adopted—80 to 35. He appeared at the Clerk's desk and took the oath of office.

Mr. WOODWARD offered a resolution that whatever diversities of opinion may prevail relative to the administration of James Buchanan, the members of the House can cordially unite in honoring the purity of his character, his ability and patriotic motives, and requesting the Speaker to appoint a Committee of seven members to attend the funeral, and communicate a copy of the resolutions to the relatives of the deceased.

Mr. WOODWARD having declined to modify the resolutions by omitting reference to the patriotism and ability of Mr. Buchanan, the resolution were, on motion of Mr. FARNSWORTH, tabled—73 to 46.

Mr. STEVENS asked leave to offer a resolution relative to the death of Ex-President Buchanan, the same as indicated by his colleague, Mr. Woodward, but objection was made.

Mr. PAINE, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back Senate amendments to the Arkansas bill, with a substitute to make conditions as follows: That the Constitution of said State shall never be amended or changed so as to discriminate in favor of or against any class of citizens of the United States in their right to vote who are now entitled to vote by said Constitution, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted, and no person shall ever be held to service or labor as a punishment for crime, except by public officers charged with custody of convicts by the laws thereof.

Mr. BROOKS made a question of privilege, that the majority of the Committee had not authorized a report to be made.

Mr. PAINE admitted the only members of the Committee present at the session wherein the matter was discussed were Messrs. Stevens, Brooks, Beck and himself.

The SPEAKER stated that under the rule whenever it is disputed that a report has been authorized by a Committee, the question of reception must be put to the House.

Mr. STEVENS remarked that whenever the gentleman made a report as from the Committee it was to be taken for granted he would stand by that report without explanation, but as his colleague had not chosen to do so, he asked him to withdraw the report till to-morrow.

Mr. PAINE said, under the circumstances, he was unwilling the question should be taken on receiving the report, and it was decided in the negative—55 to 56.

Mr. THOMAS, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the joint resolution to remove the suit as to the Harper's Ferry property from the State Court to the United States Circuit Court of West Virginia, and it was passed.

The SPEAKER presented several Executive communications, including one as to the deficiency in carrying out the reconstruction laws in the First Military District, and as to disqualifications for civil offices contained in the State Constitution of Virginia. Referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

The House, at half-past three, commenced the business of the morning hour, being the call of the Committee on Public Lands for reports. Several of no general interest were made, and acted on.

At the expiration of the morning hour, Mr. BLAINE asked leave to offer a resolution that as a mark of respect for one who has held such eminent public station, the Speaker be requested to appoint a committee of seven to attend the funeral services of Ex-President Buchanan and communicate a copy of the resolution to the relatives of deceased, which, after opposition by Mr. Van Wyck and others, was adopted—30 to 16.

The following committee was appointed: Messrs. Glossbrenner, Marshall, Dawes, Blair (Michigan), Eldridge and Trimbte.

Recess till 7:30, when the House, in Committee of the Whole, took up the tax bill.

Mr. WOOD spoke on the revenue and financial system of the Government.

New York City Matters.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Ohio Pendleton men are already here in force, and have secured the Masonic Hall for headquarters, and will be very close to the Convention. Pendleton seems to be growing in strength.

Mr. Belmont will be removed from the place of Chairman of the Executive Committee, and replaced by a more active man.

The bakers have partially succeeded in getting their advance of wages, and getting the working hours at eighteen instead of twenty hours per day. The laborers still keep up a series of strikes in different parts of the city, and very little work is done.

In the German Catholic Union yesterday, Bishop Elder, of Natches, expressed a desire for Catholic immigration to Mississippi, and urged the appointment of a Committee on Immigration.

Six hundred and seven Masonic Lodges are represented in the Grand Lodge in session here. Annual reports favorable. Receipts of the year. $67,222. Number of members, upwards of 6,500. Fifty-one new Lodges received warrants, and twenty-eight dispensations were issued.

A meeting of the friends of colored people was held in Brooklyn last evening to take steps for the erection of a colored orphan asylum and mission school.

Hon. Anson Burlingame has accepted the tender of a public dinner on the 23d of June from the merchants of this city.

At to-day's session of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York, the venerable Wm. Fielding, of Ohio, was received with grand honors.

The German Catholic Union to-day adopted a resolution reminding members of their obligation) to send children to Catholic schools where there are any, and suggesting petitions to the State Government by the Episcopacy for a proportionate share of school funds. It appears one hundred and fifty-seven societies, numbering nearly one hundred thousand members, are represented.

The persons arrested on suspicion of being the murderers of Richard Butler, in Brooklyn, last month, have been released, the Coroner's jury returning a verdict that deceased came to his death from a fall.

Nicholas Thalman, a Boston distiller, was arrested here and taken to Boston for trial on a charge of the non-payment of the special tax.

An engine, tender and baggage car on the New Jersey road ran off the track, and smashed at Hackensack bridge yesterday by a misplaced switch. Nobody hurt, the rest of the train remaining on the track, owing to the train running at slow speed.

Mr. Smith J. Eastman, who created a great stir in the provision market, about two years since, died yesterday in a lunatic asylum at Hartford.

RICHMOND, VA,

The Trial of Jeff. Davis Postponed Till October.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

RICHMOND, June 3.—The U. S. Court met this A. M., Chief Justice Chase and Underwood presiding. The Chief Justice called the case of Jefferson Davis, when Mr. Anderson of Mississippi, one of the counsel for the defence, read an agreement for postponement till October, signed by Evarts and O'Connor. The Chief Justice asked if the counsel were ready for trial, independent of this stipulation. Gov. Wells, for the prosecution, replied that in view of the absence of the District Attorney whose wife is in a dying condition, the absence of the prisoner, caused by stipulation, and the absence of Mr. Evarts, who stood in the position of more directly representing the Attorney General, the case could not well be gone on with. He suggested some day of the term in October when the Chief Justice could attend. The counsel for the defence moved for a postponement till next term, which the Chief Justice granted, saying, at the same time, that had the trial taken place in May, a year ago, last fall, or now, it would have been more convenient for him, as he was ready to try the case. He would, however, attend the next term, if possible, in view of his other duties. The witnesses, including General R. E. Lee, were recognized to appear on the fourth Monday in November, and the prisoner's bail-bond was renewed.

PHILADELPIA.

Seventeen Year Locusts—National Board of Trade Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—The seventeen year locusts suddenly appeared to-day in countless numbers.

The National Board of Trade Convention met at eleven o'clock to-day. Delegates are present from nearly every commercial city in the Union. The Convention was called to order by John Welsh, and Chas. G. Nazero, of Boston, elected temporary Chairman. The list of delegates was called and credentials handed in.

Railroad Organization.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—The stockholders of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad Company met and organized this morning, by appointing N. A. Cowdrew, of New York, Chairman, and Ira L. Gifford, of Davenport, Secretary. After appointing a Committee to report the list of stockholders and proxies authorized to vote, they adjourned until Friday morning at eleven o'clock.

Application will be made to dissolve the temporary injunction which prohibited the stockholders from proceeding to an election. Their counsel express themselves as confident of removing all legal restraints.

Ratification in California—Enthusiasm for Grant and Colfax.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The Republicans last night held one of the largest political meetings ever known in San Francisco. Speeches were made and letters from all the leading men in both factions of last year's quarrel were received, heartily endorsing the nomination of Grant and Colfax.

The Alta newspaper has been sued for fifty thousands dollars for alleged libelous statements in connection with McGarrahan's claim to the New Idea quicksilver mine. The suit is brought by E. H. Dyer, who says he is the Surveyor charged with the wrongful acts by the Alta.

Injunction Against a Railroad.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DAVENPORT, Iowa, June 3.—An injunction granted by Chief Justice Dillon, was served on the President and Directors of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company this afternoon, restraining the transfer of any stock upon the books of the Company until 40,000 shares sold by Tracy and Downs, to extend the road to Council Bluffs, should be placed on the same footing with the old stock, and also restraining the Board of Directors from holding an election in Chicago or from recognizing any other Board of Directors as officers of said corporation until after the annual election in June, 1869.

Ground Broken for a New Railroad.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEBRASKA CITY, June 3.—The ground was broken in this city to-day for building a railroad—the Midland Pacific Company—to connect with the Union Pacific one hundred and fifty miles due west of this city, and to pass through Lincoln, the capital of the State. There was a large concourse of people and much enthusiasm. The meeting was presided over by the Chief Justice of the State. Speeches were made by the Mayor and others. The road will be built within two years, saving a distance between New York and San Francisco of one hundred and forty-eight miles.

The Election in Oregon.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The election in Oregon, June 1st, resulted in a Democratic triumph. The Democratic Congressman was elected by one thousand majority. All the county tickets are Democratic except Marion, which gives a Republican majority of three hundred. Portland City gives twenty-one Democratic majority. The legislative and county officers are nearly all Democrats. The nomination of Grant and Colfax excited much enthusiasm.

New Hampshire Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette]

CONCORD, June 3,—The New Hampshire Legislature organized to-day by the election of Ezra A. Stevens, President of the Senate, and Simon G. Griffith Speaker of the House. The vote of the Senate was 8 for Stevens, and 3 for John M. Sayes; Democrat. In the House Griffith had 184 against 35 for Wm. Little, Democrat.

Tariff Bill—Military Honors to Ex-President Buchanan—Gen. Schofield and the Constitutional Amendment—Row at a Serenade—Chinese Embassy.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 29, 1868.

TARIFF BILL.

The Sub-Committee of Ways and Means, Messrs. Moorhead and Maynard, Republicans, and Mr. Niblack Democrat, reported to a full Committee to-day a long bill for the increase and revision of the tariff, when Mr. Brooks offered the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, From five to fifty per cent. of additional imports were imposed by the act of June 30th, 1864, and subsequent acts, to offset the internal revenue taxes of the act of June 30th, 1864; and Whereas, it was then understood and pledged that this additional external tariff was only to provide against and offset the internal tariff or tax; and Whereas, by act of the present session of Congress, the internal taxes upon manufactured articles have been abolished, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Committee of Ways and Means that in any new bill reported the duties on imports ought to be reduced so to effect the from five to fifty per cent. raised by act of June 30th 1864, in consequence of the internal revenue tax or tax on manufactures in the act of June 30th, 1864, which have been abandoned in the act of March 31st, 1868.

Mr. Allison offered the following as a substitute: That it is inexpedient at this late period of the session to undertake any revision of the tariff laws, except as to the correction of any legislation which may manifestly bear heavily or unnecessarily on any particular object or interest.

On motion all these propositions were laid on the table, Messrs. Brooks and Niblack dissenting.

After some discussion it was voted to postpone the bill reported by Mr. Moorhead to December next—ayes 5, nays, 4, which it is understood disposed of the tariff for this session, except on some few articles, such as copper, zinc and perhaps lumber. Sugar is not to be touched, as requested by refiners.

HONORS TO EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

The following was issued to-day:

General Order No. 25. Headquarters Adjutant General's office, Washington, D. C., June 3d, 1868. The following order from the President has been received from the War Department:

The President has issued the following: "The President with deep regret announces to the people of the United States the decease, at Wheatland, Pennsylvania, on the 1st inst., of his honored predecessor, James Buchanan. This event will occasion mourning in the nation for the loss of an eminent citizen and honored public servant. As a mark of respect for his memory, it is ordered that the Executive Department be immediately placed in mourning and all business be suspended on the day of the funeral. It is further ordered that the War and Navy Departments cause suitable military and naval honors to be paid on this occasion to the memory of the illustrious dead.

[Signed.] ANDREW JOHNSON.

In compliance with the instructions of the President and of the Secretary of War, on the day after the receipt of this order at each military post the troops will be paraded at ten A. M., and the order read to them, after which all labors for the day will cease. The national flag will be displayed at half mast. At dawn of day thirteen guns will be fired, and afterwards, at intervals of thirty minutes between the rising and setting of the sun, a single gun, and at the close of the day a national salute of thirty-seven guns. The officers of the army will wear crape on the left arm and on their swords, and the colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning for a period of six months.

By command of General Grant.

[Signed,] E. D. TOWNSEND, A. A. G.

In pursuance of the order of the President announcing the death of ex-President Buchanan, the Secretary of the Navy has issued a special order directing thirty minute guns to be fired at each of the navy yards and naval stations on the 4th inst., commencing at noon, and on board the flag ship in each squadron. Upon the day after the receipt of this order the flag ship in each squadron, the flags at the several navy yards, naval stations and marine barracks will be placed at half-mast till after the funeral, and on board all naval vessels in commission upon the day after this order is received.

GENERAL SCHOFIELD AND THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The Secretary of War sent to the House to-day the communication which he addressed as commander of the First Military District to Gen. Grant, saying he transmitted it at the suggestion of the General of the Army for the consideration of the proper committee. The following is the document:

Headquarters, 1st Military District, Va.
RICHMOND, May 15, 1868.—Gen. U. S. Grant.—General; I have the honor to invite your attention to a matter which I understand to be of great importance, and which, if I am correct, will demand the early attention of Congress. I suppose the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen, will soon be declared to have been ratified and become a part of the Constitution, and I understand the effect will be at once to remove from office all persons who are disqualified by that amendment. If I am right in the above supposition, and in my understanding of the effect of the proposed amendment, it becomes a matter of great importance to determine what is to be done in those States whose Governments are still provisional. Only in the States which shall have been re-admitted to representation in Congress no serious difficulty will exist, for the reason that in those States the only disqualification for office will be that contained in the Constitutional amendment. Hence, an ample field will be left for the selection of persons to fill all the vacant offices, except, perhaps, the higher judgeships. But in the States not re-admitted to representation the oath prescribed by the act of Congress, July 2d, 1862, will still be required of all persons elected or appointed to any office. I have called for reports which will give the number of officers of the various grades in Virginia who will be displaced by the operations of the constitutional amendment, and will forward the specific information when obtained. For the present I can only state that the number will probably be several thousand, and that only a small proportion of vacancies thus created can possibly be filled by persons possessing the necessary qualifications, including ability to take the present test oath. In the Judiciary Department, to dispense with the test oath, men would probably be insufficient, for nearly all the lawyers of sufficient experience to fit them for the Bench held some office before the war, and hence are designated by the constitutional amendment. I have already appointed in Virginia nearly five hundred officers, and would have appointed more, if qualified persons could have been found. It is important to observe that a large majority of city, town and county officers receive little or no compensation for their services. Hence men who possess the necessary qualifications cannot be induced to accept such offices, except in places where they reside and own property and have substantial interests. Reports have been received from several portions of the State that no persons can be found even to fill vacancies that now exist. When the constitutional amendment takes effect a large number of important offices must become vacant, and remain so until restoration is completed, unless some relief is afforded by Congress.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. SCOFIELD.

TARIFF POSTPONED.

The following is said to be the vote in Committee of Ways and Means to-day on postponing till December the consideration of the tariff bill: Yeas—Messrs. Schenck, Allison, Griswold, Brooks and Niblack. Nays—Messrs. Hooper, Maynard, Logan and Moorhead.

SERIOUS ROW AT A SERENADE.

In the District Court, the arguments in the case of the United States vs. R. A. Colvill, Adam Cosgrave and Wm. H. Sturgeon, were concluded and the case submitted to the jury. No verdict at adjournment.

The next case taken up was that of Arthur Ballou, proceeding in rem, for illicit distillation of liquor. Defendant's vinegar establishment, on Second street, was seized some weeks since, a still having been found in operation in an upper story. An effort was made to put the case over till the August term, but Mr. Carnahan, the District Attorney, strenuously resisted further delay, stating that the case was an important one, as much so as any of the kind that had ever been tried, and he had taken special pains to prepare for it, at the instance, even, of the defendant himself, summoning witnesses from a distance, who were now in attendance. It was finally concluded that the case should proceed. District Attorney Carnahan will be assisted by Gen. F. H. Collier, and A. M. Brown, Thos. M. Marshall and P. C. Shannon, Esqs. appear for the defense. A jury was sworn, and the libel upon which the property of defendant was seized was read, after which the Court adjourned till to-day.

In the bankruptcy branch of the court final discharges were granted and certificates awarded to John McGilvery, Benjamin F. Crisswell and William Coulter, of Pittsburgh.

James R. Pringle, of Butler county, filed a petition for final discharge. The usual orders were made.

Petitions for adjudication were filed by Charles E. Jones, of Williamsport; T. L. Gould, C. G. Andrews, M. A. Cook, Charles F. Beers, of Erie county; J. J. Sherman, of Venango county; Pearson Clark, of Erie county; Solon L. Morrison, Ralph Morse, S. Critchlow, Gideon Lewis and Alonzo Patch, of Warren county.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

On motion of A. H. Miller, Esq., George A. Chase was duly qualified and admitted to practice as an attorney of this Court.

The first case taken up was that of Richards et. al. vs. Cassidy et. al. This was an action on a promissory note. Jury out.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed of record before H. Snively, Esq., Recorder, June 3d, 1868:

Samuel Hodgson to Thomas Cealey. March 28, 1868; lot in Chartiers township, containing 13 perches. $100

Thos. Cealey to Mary J. Jamison, May 4, 1868; the above described lot $210

Joseph C. Daugherty to Thos. Crookshanks et al., April 1, 1868; lot in New Texas, Plum township, containing 48 perches, with buildings $1,150

School Directors of Pine township to Theo. Roering, March 2, 1867; lot in Sub-District No. 3 Pine township $245

Samuel C. Young to Henry Guyer, July 1, 1861; lot of ground in Reserve township, 125 by 150 feet. $700

Charles N. Reed to Peter McGovern, March 24, 1868; lot in Wilkins township, 213 by 238 feet, with buildings $3,450

Charlotte McKee to Granville F. Ebbert, September 3, 1867; part of lot 27, in Birmingham Glass Co.'s plan of lots, on Birmingham street, Birmingham, 18 by 84 feet $1,600

J. J. Shutterly to Volney Furrier, Oct. 26, 1867; lot No. 32 in Shutterly's plan, Indiana township; 25 by 130 feet $150

Bishop Domenec to Anthony Caltendi et al., May 16, 1868; 2 lots on Monterey avenue, Lower St. Clair township, 109 by 203 feet, with buildings, &c. $6,000

M. S. Clark et al to L. T. Austin et al, Feb. 28, 1868; lot No. 63 in Fleming's plan, on Western avenue, Fifth ward, Allegheny, 20 by 104 feet $1,350

Rebecca Hazlett to Annie Snowden, Feb. 21, 1868; lot in Lawrenceville, 22 by 103 feet on Spring street $225

Personal.—Chaplain Little, of the fifth Virginia Infantry, is in the city attending the State Sunday School Convention. The "Boys in Blue" who belonged to Crooks' Division, and especially those who were in hospital at Winchester, will remember the chaplain and his music box. He will be pleased to see any of his old acquaintances while in the city.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A VOICE OF THE NIGHT.

I heard the barking of a dog all night,
His hoarse and lengthened howls;
I heard him yelp, sometimes with all his might,
Then taper off in growls.

I felt as though 'twould give me great delight
To nab him by the throat,
And give him fits for thus disturbing night
With his discordant note.

I heard the clock strike one, and two and three;
I heard the roosters crow;
And then the butcher carts began—ah, me!
Down the paved streets to go.

I saw no chance for any sleep for me,
Through all the weary night;
And through the shutters I could dimly see
The dawn of morning light.

And then I made a vow I would not bear
What I had borne before;
What trouble it might cost, I didn't care,
But he should bark no more.

Peace, peace! a "pizened sassage" he shall have,
I'll give him one incog.
For, from my vengeance, nothing now can save
That old, infernal dog!

—Thurlow Weed is 71 years old.

—2,500 policemen protect New York.

—General Santa Anna is said to be dreadfully poor.

—Free public baths are to be established in Detroit.

—Admiral Farragut with his squadron are at Antwerp.

—Ludwig II of Bavaria is in ill health and must drink less beer.

—The Government has paid $460,000 for the new postoffice site in Boston.

—The Baroness Ebergeni is knitting stockings in an Austrian fortress.

—Great Britain has 1,300,000 troops upon whom the sun never sets, altogether.

—The Boston Post has at last an opportunity of using its old Buchanan obituary again.

—Baron Von Beust has just received the freedom of the City of Vienna in a costly jewelled box.

—The Schah of Persia is getting his army on a war footing and providing it with breech loaders.

—Point applique is the proper material of which book marks should be made if they are to be stylish.

—The anatomical drama in the shape of the White Fawn with Bonfanti as premiere reigns in Chicago.

—A woman in Buffalo last Wednesday had an ear ring knocked violently out of her ear by lightning.

—The Chinese are as much the rage in New York now as were their cousins, the Japs, some years ago.

—A weekly paper, published in Chicago in the Scandinavian language, has a circulation of 7,000 copies.

—One of the finest residences on the Hudson belongs to Mrs. General Fremont, and is situated at Tarry Town.

—The old question has been slightly altered in Washington; it now reads, "Have we any Bourbon among us."

—Mr. John Richards, of Maine, and a "centurion," departed this life last month; he was born in the year 1767.

—White linnen suits are said to be all the rage and just the thing for both male and female exquisites this summer.

—The Chicago Republican has read Grea Expectations and Martin Chuzzlewit and gotten them dreadfully mixed.

—In about one month the second cable will be laid across the mouth of the Gulf of Mexico from Key West to Cuba.

—There is an oak tree near the lower Genesee Falls in New York which measures 36 feet 6 inches in circumference.

—Gypsum is the newest material for house building purposes, and a New York banker is having a new palace built of it.

—The Crown Prince of Prussia has set up for a progressive leader of the Radical party and declared for perfect freedom of the press.

—New York is boasting of a moustache ten and one-half inches from tip to tip. Pittsburgh certainly leads New York in the moustache line.

—D'Israeli will probably now resign, his troubles have been long and great, but it is only recently that Tupper has written some verses about him.

—Some practical person, taking pity on the retired physician whose sands of life are nearly run out, sent him a barrel of new sand the other day.

—A Dublin paper says "the mournful intelligence that George Francis Train has been released from prison has cast a gloom over this community.

—The Hon. Charles Francis Adams will take no active part in the Presidential campaign, having decided to travel in Europe until after the election.

—Gen. Grant will spend the summer on his farm near St. Louis. Speaker Colfax and his family are going to Denver City as soon as Congress adjourns.

—The letter carriers of Philadelphia are now authorized to sell stamps, which will be very convenient for persons living at some distance from the postoffice.

—When A. T. Stewart heard of the nomination of Grant and Colfax he got his big flag out which he used to display when there had been a Union victory during the war.

—Prof Hayden, of the University of Pennsylvania, lectured last night before the Odontographic Society of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia on the extinct mammals of the West.

—The Northern Monthly, which was one of the very best periodicals, has ceased to exist. The Messrs. Putnam have purchased it and merged it in their green backed magazine.

—Ladies with poodles should bear in mind the fact that fashion has declared that this summer the ribbon attached to the collar of the dog and held in the hand of the owner shall be pink.

—"Colfax," says the Boston Post, "has been fourteen years in Congress and has as little to show for it as any man there." He certainly can't show up as much as Senator Ross or any of the other green-back Senators.

—Sapphires are found quite frequently and of unusual size in various parts of Montana.

—Mr. Edwin Stanton, Jr., son of the distinguished Minister of War, has resigned his position in the War Office and begun practicing law. He was admitted to the bar about a year ago.

—Every slave captured from slaving vessels by the British West African squadron, since the year 1858, has cost on an average ninety dollars; 8,830 have been captured during that time.

—The latest piece of Baron Von Beust's liberal wisdom is the abolition of imprisonment for debt. Since the days of Joseph II there has been no such grand reformer as this same wonderful little Baron.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Poigndestre, the wife of a clergyman on the Island of Jersey, rushed into the sea and succeeded in rescuing a drowning man last February, and the Royal Humane Society has just presented her with a medal.

—Mrs. Frances Ann Kemble read "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the soldiers' orphans of the Lincoln Institution on Seventh street.

—Bonfires were lit in various Southern towns to show the delight of the people over the acquittal of the President. A very renowned being, in a still more torrid abode, probably rejoiced just as much for the same cause.

—Anxiety is felt by some of the neighboring farmers, when they lock upon the locusts which are constantly increasing in numbers. Some of the swarms are large enough to appear very formidable, but we trust that they will take it out in appearance.

—Henry Ward Beecher says "Repudiation is wrong, and every whisper countenancing it is from the devil. If all the nations of the earth were to speak across the sea in its favor, and the great ocean itself should thunder out amen, repudiation would still be wrong."

—The Boston Post has been trying every day for two weeks unsuccessfully, to get off a joke on Boutwell and the hole in the sky. The result of all this labor is, "The nebulae in the Galaxy is not Boutwell." We should certainly advise the Post to try at least two weeks more.

—Bishop Tuttle, Missionary Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Montana, Idaho and Utah, and one of the most earnest and indefatigable of men, has been elected Bishop of Missouri by the Convention in that diocese, to fill the place of the late Bishop Hawks.

—The waters are so high in Maine that it is feared many millions of logs will go out to sea. Already much valuable lumber has shot over or under the booms and been lost. Even if the waters subside, much expense will be incurred from so many logs being left high and dry on the shores.

—The latest sensation in frauds is a manufactory doing a large business in making Paris and London Exhibition medals, diplomas and crosses of the legion of honor. This is only equalled by the fatory in Birmingham, where Waterloo relics, and gems of antiquity for Athens, Thebes and Pompeii are turned out in large quanties.

—Some weeks ago we noticed that the dead body of a man had been discovered in an unoccupied house in London. Since then he has been positively identified by the friends of six missing men. As they all have photographs, which resemble the corpse and all knew of various little peculiar marks about the body, the police are nonplussed. It is worse than a German Doppleganger.

—Baron Stockel called upon Mr. Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy in New York, on the 29th ult., to say that he had been instructed by Prince Gortschakoff to convey the best wishes of the Russian Government, also to assure them that a cordial reception awaited them at St. Petersburg. Mr. Burlingame, warmly thanking the Baron, remarked that this was the first official recognition of the Chinese by any European Government.

—The Cincinnati Gazette heads its columns "for President, General Ulysses S. Grant, of the United Srates; for Vice President, Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana." This is an excellent idea. Grant, being an officer of the regular army, educated at West Point, belongs to his country alone, and to no particular State. It is one of the principles for which he fought during the war, and he should have the full benefit of it, and not be set down as a "western man."

P. H. VANDER WEYDE, late Professor in the New York Medical College, furnishes a medical journal some facts of direct interest to snuff ta ers. He says snuff made of inferior, insipid kinds of tobacco is adulterated with quick-lime or some caustic alkali, the latter substances developing an acrid and pungent effect upon olfactory organs, secures moisture, increases the weight and neutralizes the acid developed by the fermentation of the molasses and water, which enters into the regular sauces, added at an early period of its preparation. Sometimes very finely powdered glass is added for the purely pungent effect produced; and to give it a peculiar flavor, urine, chloride of calcium, or magnesium and glycerine are introduced. Even the expensive kinds of Scotch, Spanish, Russian, and other snuffs, are medicated with nitrite of silver, and furnish mineral or basic of sulphate of mercury, gold sulphur, or red sulphur of antimony, tartar emetic, etc., of which must be delightful assurances to snuff-takers, to say nothing of dippers!

IT is said that among the two million people by whom Yeddo, in Japan, is inhabited, there is not a beggar in the streets, not a drunkard, not a ruffian. The women are beautiful, the men are robust and energetic; there is no trouble about fashions; education is universal, books ar eplentiful, though there are no newspapers; life is simple and easy; marriage is universal, and children go naked.

THE indignation in Kansas on account of the recreancy of Senator Ross is increasing. Meetings are being held in almost every town and village in the State, at which he is being called upon to resign. It is believed that he will never again attempt to enter Kansas.

COPLEY POT CLAY,
Are now prepared to furnish it in any quantity those wishing to procure this superior article. During fifteen years' use of this Clay, we have arrived at such proportions as we believe makes it a better article for pots than any in the market, we having secured an average stand of SIX, EIGHT and TEN MONTHS. We will furnish receipes for the proportion of the mixture of this Clay to persons purchasing. The Clay is ground and moulded in lumps for delivery.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with six feet six inches in the Monongahela, and about seven feet six inches in the Allegheny. The weather was cloudy and unsettled yesterday with very strong indications of rain at times.

The Glendale arrived early on Tuesday evening with a very good trip, and a barge of sand in tow. The Charmer also arrived from Nashville. It is the intention of the owners of this boat to make some repairs, before she makes another trip.

The J.N. McCullough got in about twelve o'clock yesterday with a good trip from Cincinnati. She returns again to-day at noon, and passengers and shippers should bear in mind that Captain Moore is very strict in regard to leaving on time, and it would be a good thing if some other steamboat Captains would follow his example.

The America, Capt. Poe, with the veteran Capt. Murdoch in the office, is announced to leave for St. Louis this evening, and we have no doubt she will leave here with a full cargo.

The St. Charles is expected in about noon to-day, and will return as usual to-morrow at 5 p. m. Her agents, Messrs. Ghriest & Haslett, will receive for her this morning at the foot of Wood street.

The Grey Eagle arrived and departed for Parkersburg as usual. She broke one of her hog chains in backing out, which delayed her for something like an hour.

The Alice V. was at Wheeling yesterday forenoon putting off metal, and the Wild Duck was at Steubenville doing the same thing. Both of these boats ought to arrive here to-day.

The funeral of Capt. Alexander McGowin took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by quite a number of steamboatmen. Capt. McGowin was an old and well-known steamboatman, and had command of quite a number of steamers, among others the Ambassador, Prima Donna, Stephen Decatur,, Belle Henderson, and Savanna. At the time of his death he was in command of the Armenia.

We clip the following items from our Cincinnati exchanges of Tuesday: The Delaware, Pittsburgh to Nashville, passed down yesterday, after receiving some freight here. Pilots, Robt. Greenlee and Capt. R. Calhoun.

The Messenger, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed down yesterday. When she leaves Louisville she expects to have about 500 tuns freight, 350 tuns of which is for the Upper Mississippi. She was pretty full of passengers. Pilots, John Evelyn and Capt. Jesse Dean.

The Silver Cloud No. 2, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed up during Sunday night.

The Argosy, from Pittsburgh, will be found at the wharf this morning, with 150 tuns of freight for Louisville. Walter Scott, her clerk, arrived in the city yesterday.

In the Supreme Court of Cincinnati yesterday, the case of King, Pennock & King vs. Thomson Dean, S. J. Hale and others, was decided in favor of defendants. The claim made by plaintiffs was for the value of twenty bales of cotton ($8,000) shipped by them in 1863, under the following circumstances: The L ady Franklin, owned by defendants, and the Sunny Side, were lying side by side at Memphis. Defendants shipped seventy-three bales cotton for which the Lady Franklin gave bill lading. Only fifty-three bales were delivered to plaintiffs at Cincinnati. It came out in testimony that twenty bales had been hauled to the Sunny Side by mistake, which boat was burnt on that trip, and the cotton lost. The Court held, that the mistake being mutual, neither party could claim advantage, and the decrepancy in the bill lading being satisfactorily explained in evidence, defendents were not liable.

The starboard boiler of the ill-fated Magnolia was found Sunday on the bar below California, Ohio. It now lies in three feet water. This is the second boiler found, and we must now conclude that the remaining or middle boiler was the one which exploded. The water gauge and some flues were also secured; part of watch, also, marked Northampton, England, No. 5,019; also, one keg horse shoes marked J. K., Smith's Landing, Ky.

Colonel Steadman, of the Louisville Hotel, Louisville, a hearty, genial old gentleman, and his young bride, were passengers for Pittsburgh on the St. Charles last evening.

The C. W. Dorrance has returned to Mobile from an unsuccessful attempt to raise the Sallie List, sunk in the Alabama river. She was raised about three feet, and a diver went through her hatchway. She was found to be filled with sand, and parted amidships. There is no possibility of raising her to any advantage, but her machinery will probably prove valuable, and will be taken off her during the low water season.

A deck hand on board of the W. A. Caldwell fell overboard and wos drowned, while she was lying at Fort Smith, on Sunday last.

A storm prevailed in the vicinity of Evansville on Friday night, doing considerable damage along the line of the railroad, and playing smash generally along the river, from Owensboro to Henderson. Several buildings in course of construction in both places, were blown down, while shade and ornamental trees were twisted off and torn up by the roots in great numbers.

The Louisville Courier, of Tuesday, says: The Captain of the steamer Delaware telegraphed from Cincinnati yesterday to one of our steamboat agents to know how much freight there was here for Cumberland river. The answer returned was very little for Cumberland river, and it might have been truthfully added, or any place else.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all pipes, so that they become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

MISCELLANEOUS.

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTCAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

WE congratulate the Republicans of Ohio upon the justice which at last awards to Hon. COLUMBUS DELANO the seat of which he has hitherto been fraudulently deprived. Upon the clear case which was presented to the House yesterday, the claims of Mr. DELANO were approved by a decided majority, and he was accordingly sworn in.

THE DEMOCRACY of Maryland promise their most sweet voices at New York for PENDLETON and greenbacks. There was no difficulty in anticipating this from a State which furnished so large contributions in men, money and sympathy to the "lost cause." It gratefully recognizes the sincere sympathy which was ever avowed for that cause by the Ohio politician, by offering to him now, as a candidate, that personal and material support which he would not give to his imperilled country.

THE SENATE very properly holds that the Attorney General's office is not a proper place for a man who declares its legislation to be unconstitutional, and has committed himself to the utmost degree of official opposition to the enforcement of such laws. Nor is it consistent with the dignity of the highest law-office of the government that it should be made a convenience, to be taken or vacated at pleasure, by a personal adherent to Mr. JOHNSON. When Mr. STANBERY left the office, to become the personal and professional counsel of his friend, his retirement was very properly accepted as final, and his proposed restoration to the post has been accordingly negatived.

THE joint resolution introduced by Senator EDMUNDS, which proposes to exclude from the Electoral College such lately rebellious States as shall remain unreconstructed until after the November election, is identically the same with the resolution which excluded the same States in 1864. Reasonable men of all parties gave it their approbation at that time, and precisely the same reasons exist to justify the exclusion now. The Democracy, which has steadfastly opposed that just and practical policy by which Congress aimed to bring these States back long since to their practical relations, have themselves to thank for the delayed consummation which makes the exclusion again necessary. It is in accordance with the tactics of that party to clamor against the logical consequences of their own blunders.

WHATEVER may be the issue of the discussions between this country and England concerning the Alabama claims, British statesmen concur in accepting the necessity of further legislation to guard against similar contingencies hereafter. It is admitted that, whatever may be the legal justice of reclamations from foreign nations based upon past proofs of the imperfections of the existing legislation, it will be both prudent and just to amend her statutes to ensure hereafter a neutrality as completely practical as theoretical. A parliamentary commission, therefore, reports in favor of such additional provisions against belligerent abuses of her neutrality, as, had they been adopted eight years since, would have effectually restrained the Anglo-Confederate piracies for which we now demand reparation. This official recognition of the necessity for amendment of the existing laws must have a marked influence upon the still unsettled negotiations in that regard between the two countries.

PRESIDENTIAL opposition to the wishes of Congress has temporarily abated its character, becoming rather non-resistant than aggressive. This is apparent in Mr. JOHNSON'S official action recently upon two measures which were distasteful to him, and therefore could not be formally approved, but which, in his new and quieter rôle, he suffers to become laws, under the constitutional provision, without his signature. The laws referred to provided, 1st, for the renewal of the Washington City charter, and embodying the principle of impartial suffrage, and, 2d, a bill appropriating for deficiencies in the expense of executing the reconstruction laws. Either of these bills would have probably encountered his veto six months ago; that he has not vetoed them now seems to show that he listens to the advice of shrewder friends, who recommend a more complaisant policy. It would be too much to hope for, that a protracted session will find him steady to this wiser purpose, while an early adjournment would leave so many matters of public interest unsettled as to plunge him again into irresistible temptations to re-open an active warfare upon the distasteful measures of Congress.

THE XXIIID DISTRICT.

The high compliment paid to Hon. THOS. WILLIAMS, the present member from this District, in the adoption of his name, by acclamation, in the Allegheny District Convention on Monday, as the choice of his Republican fellow-citizens of this county for the renomination, demands something more than the brief mention which was made of it in yesterday's GAZETTE. It is to be observed that his political friends, in that portion of the District which is usually good for nearly four thousand majority, and who present a constituency as enlightened as any in the State, have unanimously expressed their wish that he should again represent them, for a fourth successive term, in the National Councils. That section of the District comprises very many citizens of ability and experience in public affairs, none of whom have deemed it just toward Mr. WILLIAMS to compete with him for this honor, which seemed to them due to his equally distinguished capacity and to his eminently faithful services. During the most critical period ever known to the Republic, embracing nearly the whole duration of the great rebellion, and covering the three subsequent years of civil entanglement—this latter period especially taxing the discretion, patience and fidelity of Representatives—Mr. WILLIAMS has borne himself with such marked honor, in the line of a most delicate and exacting duty, that his fellow-citizens, in this part of the district at least, far from desiring any other candidate, heartily solicit the concurrence of the other counties in a renewed expression of their confidence, by recommitting that trust to his care.

At Washington, as among his immediate constituents, Mr. WILLIAMS has taken a highly honorable position. He is regarded, by members of both Houses, as a most sagacious, faithful and reliable Representative. As a member of the House Judiciary Committee, he has been given a place which the House confers only upon its best qualified and most prudent counsellors. As a Manager in the recent great trial, he has so well done his part toward a fitting vindication of the National justice, that no responsibility for the failure can be properly visited upon him. No member has an influence in the House greater or more deserved.

It is stated that the other counties of the district, acting upon local considerations, will present to the conferees the names of other candidates. Should Mr. WILLIAMS be dominated, as Allegheny county hopes for, those gentlemen will have no regrets in the preference shown for a Representative who has deserved so well.

THE METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The fifteenth Quadrennial session of nearly five weeks' duration at Chicago closed on Tuesday noon. The progressive steps of this dignified and influential body were carefully noted by us at the time of their occurrence, some of which mark an era in that Church, and, indeed, the Christian world. Among the most important matters of local interest was the re-election of Rev. SAMUEL H. NESBIT, D. D., as editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, for the third term, which we believe is unprecedented, as the usual limit, by custom, to hold the official editorial relation, is but two terms. During his eight years as editor of the Advocate, the circulation of the paper has been greatly augmented, and its size enlarged to nearly double its former dimensions. We congratulate the Doctor on his re-election, and wish him much prosperity in the future.

A STATEMENT has been printed by Hon. H. S. BUNDY, an ex-member of Congress from Ohio, giving a narration of the facts concerning his conversation with Chief Justice CHASE, pending the impeachment trial. While it does not appear that Mr. CHASE expressed any Presidential aspirations as charged, it is stated that the Chief Justice distinctly declared his opposition to the impeachment. It is remarkable that, with his usually clear perceptions of the proprieties which should govern his judicial station, Mr. CHASE should have been guilty of so flagrant a disregard of them as to avow his opinions with this premature haste. His indecent confession as established now by direct and unimpeachable proof, sufficiently justifies the severest criticisms which have been visited upon him. That the Presidential ambition which Mr. BUNDY does not testify to, does at the same time animate this eminently political judge, is a fact well enough corroborated from other sources. Mr. BUNDY'S further testimony, that the Chief Justice also avowed his hostility to the Congressional plan of Reconstruction and to the Republican policy generally, although it does not perhaps expose him to merited censure in his judicial capacity, is yet a proof that he is now a recreant to the political principles which secured for him such high elevation. That confession also throws much light upon the proclivities manifested by the Supreme Court at its last session toward the overthrow of the Reconstruction policy. Those who remember how confidently the Chief Justice was counted on to sustain that policy in the MCARDLE and similar cases, will unite with us in congratulating the country now, that his treacherous defection was not sooner and more fatally revealed.

ANOTHER section of the Union Pacific Railway is ready for acceptance, and is now undergoing the formal inspection of the Commissioners. The extraordinary success with which this great work is pushed toward a speedy and solid consummation presents the strongest evidence that the construction of a trans-continental railway has been demanded by the public necessities, that the means and the agents therefor have a peculiar adaptation to the object in view, and that a bold project, wisely conceived, will be faithfully executed. This great railway is likely to be completed a twelve month earlier than contemplated in the original plans, but, as events currently show, not an hour in advance of the public needs. What a brilliant illustration its progress presents, of the marvellous capacities of our people!

IN THE Congressional caucus of the Republicans the other day, the question of adjournment being under consideration, Mr. COVODE presented some suggestions especially worthy of attention. He is reported as follows:

Mr. Covode thought they should move with great care in the matter of the Southern States, and should only adjourn so as to be ready to reassemble previous to December; that though the Southern States were now coming in loyal end first, that as soon as the troops are withdrawn the Rebels will seize upon the ballot-boxes and create a reign of terror over the colored people to prevent them from voting, while they would declare that the electoral votes had been cast for the Democratic candidates, and if the colored men would not submit quietly, troops would be called on to shoot them down.

We are confident that Mr. COVODE'S language does not overrate the mischievous consequences likely to result from a premature adjournment. Our Republican Senators and Representatives, who shall needlessly expose the country to the inevitable consequences of their failure to complete the work of restoration in the safest and most enduring form at the present session, will find it simply impossible to justify their action to their constituents. Without being absolute masters of the situation, Congress at least has, while in session, effectively the practical control of it. Its settled policy is working as rapidly as possible towards a legitimate and exhaustive result, and it is clearly the first duty of the Republican majority to remain in position until that result shall be established as a finality, by the concurrent action of the Southern people and of the Federal authority. Nothing is yet conclusively fixed in the solution of these serious questions, but, with patience, firmness and a wise harmony on the part of Congress, these questions, in the main and in detail, are well in train toward an irrevocable adjustment. It is the duty of members to hold themselves prepared to second the efforts of the Southern Unionists, by a prompt recognition of their success in meeting the conditions imposed, and to sustain them, in the meantime, as well as by the moral support of their presence at the Capital, as by the positive and tangible check which that presence maintains upon the restless and mischievous man who has already been suffered to work so much mischief.

THE State election in Oregon is reported to have resulted in the choice of JOSEPH S. SMITH, (Dem.) for Congress by 1,000 majority over DAVID LOGAN, (Rep.) The sitting Republican member, MALLORY, had 533 majority, two years ago. Governor WOOD, (Rep.) had 327 majority two years ago, and holds over until 1870. The election on Monday was for Congress, two Supreme Judges, half the State Senate, the entire lower House and for Congress and for county offices. The old Senate, one-half of which holds over, had six Republican majority, with one in the House. The new Legislature, which is reported to be Democratic, will elect a successor to U. S. Senator WILLIAMS. The State polled about 14,000 votes in 1860, giving 5,270 to LINCOLN, 5,006 to BRECKENRIDGE and 3,951 to DOUGLAS. In 1864 it polled nearly 20,000 votes, giving LINCOLN 9,888, and M'CLELLAND 8,457. The entire State polls about the same number of votes as our Allegheny county, and, although LINCOLN carried it by a small majority, by virtue of his extraordinary hold upon the popular regard, yet it is essentially a Democratic State. The votes of its sparse frontier population are naturally influenced in a great degree by Mr. JOHNSON'S Indian agents, and other Federal officials, and it is not at all unlikely that the facilities for fraud, which such a new State affords, have been systematically and successfully improved. A different result in November may be safely counted on. The nominations at Chicago have given great satisfaction to the Republicans of Oregon, who will now go to work and organize victory for GRANT and COLFAX.

THE Philadelphia Post very pertinently remarks upon General Grant's declaration that he should, as President, have no policy to enforce against the will of the people, that this gives fair notice to all concerned that our candidate will, under all circumstances, regard the popular will, constitutionally expressed, as the supreme rule in the conduct of public affairs. The Post says:

We go into this campaign, therefore, to elect a good executive officer—a President who believes in our principles, and who will rejoice to carry them out, but who will not hold himself bound to thwart the people if they repudiate Republicanism. This theory of Grant's is in harmony with the nature of our institutions, and should be an assurance to all political parties that in electing Grant the American people prevent the return of that terrible conflict which has made infamous the administration of Andrew Johnson. It should turn the attention of the Republican party to the Congressional elections, and to the Legislatures, which choose United States Senators. If we maintain our supremacy in Congress we are sure of supremacy in the White House; if we lose the next Congress, Grant has frankly warned us that he will not oppose his opinion to the expressed will of the people.

WE have received the second number of MELLOR'S MUSICAL MIRROR, a monthly journal devoted exclusively to musical matters, published in this city by C. C. MELLOR, No. 81 Wood street. It is neatly printed, artistically arranged and brimful of local and miscellaneous musical items. It should be in the hands of everybody interested in the cultivation of a correct taste among the masses for the "art divine."

THE Executive Committee of the National Testimonial to William Lloyd Garrison have made their third report, in which they present thirty-one thousand dollars to Mr. Garrison, as the voluntary contribution of his fellow-countrymen, and say that this sum will be increased by about two thousand dollars from sources where the subscription is not yet finished. The letter of the committee contains a graceful tribute to the unflagging zeal of Mr. Garrison in the cause of freedom, and assures him of the truly national character of the testimonial, coming from every quarter of the country and from all classes of people.

THE FIRST STATE to respond, through a general Convention, to the Chicago nominations, is West Virginia. Her Republicans held their State Convention on the day after that at Chicago, and the resolutions heartily endorse both the ticket and the platform. The same Convention put up a strong State ticket, which they propose to elect by a magnificent majority.

Chief Justice Chase.

I am in receipt of the Washington daily morning Chronicle, containing a reported conversation between the Hon. S. P. Chase and myself, on the occasion of my recent visit to Washington, the main features of which are very incorrect, in so far as relates to anything said by the Chief Justice as to his plans, purposes or "intentions," in the ensuing Prisidential election. There is an entire misapprehension of the facts as stated by me, in relation to any plans developed by him regarding his "intentions" of becoming a candidate for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket. The conversation very naturally turned on the great question pending in the Senate, upon which he expressed his views fully, frankly, and without reserve, distinctly asserting that he was opposed to the impeachment of the President, and opposed to the Congressional plan of reconstruction. Nothing expressed or implied by him indicated a desire on his part to conceal any views he entertained on these subjects. In fact the contrary purpose was inferred by me, from the manner in which he gave he gave expression to his views. Hence I felt at liberty to report to some of my political friends at Washington his views on these questions. Of course I was surprised, to say nothing worse, to hear the Chief Justice express himself thus—for hitherto I had regarded all the reports in the newspapers in relation to his position on these questions as wholly unreliable. It was then and there that I realized my mistake and disappointment. Hitherto I had defended him from what I had considered unjustifiable attempts of a partizan press to defame his standing with the Union party of the country. In general terms I did report to some of my acquaintances in Washington the result of the interview between the Chief Justice and myself, and the effect it had produced on my own mind. But as to the third or new party, and its future operations, all that I ever reported to any one was the sum of my own and the speculations of others, never having said or intended to say that any part of the plan, purposes or intentions of the Chief Justice, or Senators named, had been communicated to me by him or them. I cannot consent, by implication even, to have injustice done to one whose friendship I have so long enjoyed—one whose great wisdom has accomplished so much for his country, and one in whose political integrity and wisdom I have, with you, hitherto had such unbounded confidence.

European Advices by Mail.

All the London journals published on Monday their special correspondents' letters containing details of the capture of Magdala, the death of King Theodore, and the destruction of Magdala.

The Times' correspondent says that King Theodore died by his own hand. The day before the arrival of the British army Theodore had summoned all the prisoners to his presence, and had, in cold blood, butchered over three hundred of them, some with his own hand, almost within sight and hearing of the rest. The same correspondent says:

"Of the strength of Magdala itself, it is perhaps impossible to give an adequate idea. It is protected by lofty, almost overhanging cliffs, so precipitous that a cat could not climb them, except at two points, north and south, at each of which a steep narrow path leads up to a strong gateway."

The death of King Theodore is thus described:

"Shortly after a volley from the English Sniders, Theodore and his chiefs retired within Magdala, and there awaited the advance of the British. As the first soldiers appeared above the stockade Theodore's chiefs were shot down; but the King, who had dropped his royal robe of silk to escape observation, fled from the gateway to a retired spot higher up on the citadel, and there shot himself, putting the pistol into his mouth. From the plainness of his dress the body was not at first recognized, but as soon as it was identified, and on the approach of Sir Robert Napier drawn forth into the principal pathway, an involuntary cheer burst from the soldiers around."

The Patrie confirms the authenticity of General de Failly's address to the officers of the Camp of Chalons, in which he told them that as war was possible, they must look sharp and lose no time.

THE London Lancet has a communication from a Doctor Wilson, which highly recommends the use of Carbolic Acid for severe burns. He states that in his practice he has recently used it with marked benefit—employing it in conjunction with the well known remedy, oil and lime water—thirty parts of the oil and water to one part of the Carbolic Acid. This he used by saturating linen rags with it, and spreading them on the scalded surface, and kept them moist by smearing them frequently with the liquid by means of a feather tip. Two advantages here are manifest—the exclusion of the air from the tender wound, and the prevention of pus formation, by the rapid healing of the sore by natural restorative action. This latter advantage, it will be seen, secures the patient from being personally marred in appearance.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

Mr. Schenck, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, in his explanation of the new tax bill, stated that he was in favor of reducing the tax on whisky to seventy-five cents per gallon. The impression in outside circles is that a reduction will be agreed to during the present session of Congress.

Secretary Seward has informed a prominent foreign diplomatist that he sent to the President on Friday night the tender of his resignation as Secretary of State. We have no information as to the motive which induced him to take this step, but presume it is merely done because propriety seems to require that Mr. Johnson should have an opportunity to reconstruct his Cabinet, if he chooses. Whether there is any prospect of Mr. Seward's resignation being accepted, we have no means of knowing, but we do not think there is any ground for the rumor that Charles Francis Adams was likely to succeed him.

A letter to the New York Herald says: "Judge Chase recently expressed himself in unison with the Democratic party on every point except that of universal suffrage. If he was elected by that party he would carry out their policy faithfully, and labor to make the party one of permanent usefulness. But he does not want the Presidency, is not a candidate for nomination, and would not assume the office at a sacrifice of his honest convictions on general issues, expressed highly conservative ideas favoring material Government aid to the Southern States, a general amnesty, and strongly deprecating the harsh measures of Congress. On financial questions he favors an early return to specie payments.

The Evening Chronicle's special says: Some days ago I stated that at a caucus of Republican Senators, Messrs. Wade, Chandler, Cattell and other extreme Radicals, left and refused to participate, because some of the recreant Senators, who voted for the President's acquittal, were allowed to participate. This statement certain zealous correspondents have seen proper to deny upon the alleged authority of the above named Senators themselves. Notwithstanding this, your correspondent reiterates the correctness of the contents of the former dispatch. All those named did withdraw from the caucus for the reasons given, and met immediately afterwards in the Vice President's room, where the matter was talked over, as your correspondent was informed by Senator Wade, and my former dispatch was based upon what he said.

The rejection of Mr. Stanbery was made upon the ground that he has refused to argue before the Supreme Csurt in favor of the constitutionality of the laws of Congress, which the President holds to be unconstitutional. This course was pursued by Mr. Stanbery in the McArdle case, and he has made no secret that the same rule would govern his action in any similar cases. This assumption a majority of the Senate felt they could not endorse, as they hold, on the contrary, that it is as plainly the duty of the Attorney General to assume the constitutionality of regularly enacted laws, and assist in their enforcement, as it is the duty of the President to assume their validity and unhesitatingly execute them.

The members of the National Typographical Union are now enjoying the hospitalities of the printing fraternity. They were taken in carriages to visit the various places of interest, and yesterday they visited the Departments, and called upon the President and General-in-Chief.

The Consul at Costa Rica requests permission for the United States naval vessel to make a survey of the Gulf of Nicoya on the Pacific coast, in order to facilitate the opening of a new port to commerce at Tivavas. The papers have been sent to the Senate with an endorsement of request by Secretary Seward.

Hon. Henry Barnard, Commissioner of Education, has transmitted to both Houses a series of general and special reports on colleges, schools and departments of science, applied to industrial arts, aided by national land grants, State normal schools, and other institutions for the training of teachers. Also, reports on school architecture, with illustrations of buildings recently erected for graded schools in some of the principal cities of the country. Other information in relation to education, both in this and other countries, furnished by the Commissioner with particularity, shows abundant resources on that subject.

EVERY VIOLATION

Of the laws of health invariably entails its own punishment, and the warnings administered by the faithful monitor (pain) cannot be neglected with impunity. If its admonitions were heeded, and the proper remedy immediately resorted to, a vast amount of suffering would be prevented, and dangerous diseases averted. When the head throbs, the lips become parched, and the cheek is burning—the warning is given; neglect is then dangerous. In the vast storehouses of nature may be found remedies for all the different maladies that afflict mankind, without resorting to pernicious minerals. The best of these medicinal agents have been incorporated in the preparation known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and offered as a safe remedy to those suffering from the various forms of fever. This medicine has steadily and surely won its way into the confidence of the public, and has received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, should recommend it to all classes o. our community.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

DR. KEYSER says: "You want air, not physic; you want pure air, not medicated air; you want plenty of nutrition, such as plenty of meat and bread will give; physic has no nutriment; gasping for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you; and stimulants cannot cure you. If you want to get well, go in for BEEF AND OUT-DOOR AIR."—Republic.

He says further: Don't put off the first symptoms. "A little leak may sink a great ship;" a small sore in the throat, lungs or liver will soon involve the whole body. How often do we see people put off for a year or two what in the beginning could have been remedied for a trifle. The Doctor's advice is, and always has been, attend to the first symptoms of disease. Do not let the constitution become a wreck before you begin to mend; if you do, ten to one there will be no remedy. There is a remedy for every disease if taken in time. A slight sore throat or cough may be removed with comparatively little trouble; but a constitution, sinking and breaking to pieces by allowing these little troubles to accumulate is not so easy. Dr. Keyser's mode of lung sounding is unique, and as thorough as it is unique. There is not a spot or space over the whole surface of the lungs that he does not sound and investigate, and by so doing is enabled to supply the appropriate remedy.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT CONSULTING OFFICE FOR LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND TREATMENT OF CHRONIC DISEASES, No. 120 PENN STREET, from 9 A. M. UNTIL 3 P. M.

June 1st, 1868.

—General Buchanan, of the Fifth Military District, (Louisiana and Texas) has announced that the State, Parish and Judicial officers elected, and the General Assembly, will not convene until after the acceptance of the new constitution by Congress. The civil government is declared provisional until after the adoption of the amendment to the Federal Constitution. The above mentioned officers will not take their seats until November.

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; an apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagonshed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 3, 1868.

Gold remains firm at from 139⅞ to 140⅞; the market closed active at the latter figure. The imports of merchandise are increasing, whilst the exports remain at the low figures of last week. The demand for United States bonds in Europe is merely speculative, and mainly engineered by a clique of brokers firms in New York, London and Frankfort, in the absence of any other business. The actual investment demand for government bonds either here or abroad is not any larger than before. A State is no better off than any private individual; the credit at home must by A No. 1 before it can be established abroad or else it will have no duration. We are precisely in that position now, with gold at 140⅞, and weekly imports that exceeds the exports by nearly five million dollars in our currency is certainly a poor recommendation for any nations credit, and still speculators insist that United States bonds will advance sufficiently to make them equal to par in gold here. If this will ever happen during the present generation, then Adam Szuth and John Stuart Mills havo wasted their energies for nothing, and all practical men have become a set of idle dreamers.

Government bonds were rather dull and lower to-day; the fluctuations yesterday were within one per cent., and to-day the market closed weak, with decidedly more offers to sell than to buy.

Stocks are lower, and the less is said about them the better. The dullness of business in general has produced in all the inlands towns a class of speculators, who are as such the most dangerous element in the community for the re-establishment of improved credit among the business community in general, and that of financiers a established reputation in particular.

Business is dull, and money is scarcer at from 8 to 9 per cent. for good parties.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140⅞; 1881 bonds, 116½; 1862 5-20s, 112¼; 1864 do, 110½; 1865 do, 110⅜; Consols, 110½; 10-40s, 106; 7-30s, 109¾.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88; Fort Wayne, 113; North Western, common 70⅜; North Western—preferred, 82½; New York Central, 134¾; Erie, 69½; Old Southern, 89¾; Ohio & Mississippi, 30¼; Merchants Union Express, 27¾; Western Union Telegraph, 38¼. Mining Shares—Corydon, 30; Quartz Hill, 115; Quicksilver, 29.

—As there prevails a popular error in relation to the expiration of the Bankrupt act, we publish below the section relating to it. From this it will be seen that the act remains in full force after the 1st of June, when the debtor can secure the assent of the majority of his creditors in number and value to his discharge:

"And in all proceedings in bankruptcy commenced after one year from the time this act shall go into operation, no discharge shall be granted to a debtor whose assets do not pay fifty per centum of the claims against his estate, unless the assent in writing of a majority in number and value of his creditors who have proved their claims is filed in the case at or before the time of application for discharge."

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Tuesday, says: We have no change to notice in the condition of the money market. The supply is still in excess of the demand, consequently the rates are very low. Call loans are quoted at 5 so 6 per cent., though there are occasional transactions in large amounts below 5 per cent. Prime commercial bills are discounted at 6 per cent. Outside paper ranges from ¾ to 1 per cent a month, according to credit.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 140; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 116⅜; 5-20's, 1862, 112¼; 5-20's, 1864, 110½; 5-20's, 1865, 110¼; 10-40's, 106; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 113½; 5-20's, January and July, '67, 113½; June 7-30's, 109⅞; July 7-30's, 109⅞; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—Market quiet: weather fine, but no improvement in trade; the most important chauge noticeable to-day is a further concession on fine Brown Muslin as follows: The Great Falls J, the Hampton and Exeter are all down to one shilling per yard, the mills generally curtailing production; large sales of bales Honey Comb Quilts and Lancaster do. came off to-day, and goods sold at such low prices as to preclude the possibility of producing any more of them this season; the former sold at from $1,45 down to $1,37½, while the latter sold at $1,30a1,46 for 9-8; $1,75a1,86 for 10-4, and $2,25a2,30 for 10-4.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Hogs very dull and 25 a30c lower; $7,37½a7,90 for medium to fair shipping, and $8,10a8,50 for good to choice shipping.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The general markets continue exceedingly dull, and what is worse still, there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. The demand for all of the leading articles of produce is restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, and as a general thing, prices are tending downward.

GROCERIES—The grocery market is quiet and prices are unchanged. Sugars remain very firm at our quotations, and, with a brisk demand, prices would advance. Coffee is stronger since our last report, although there is no advance in prices. Syrups and Molasses are quiet and steady. Rice firm. Lake Herring and White Fish have advanced 50c per half barrel, and are very scarce. The following are the ruling quotations:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 14½ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 18c; A, 17c; B, 16½c; Extra C, 16¼c; Sugar House, 11¼c.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 22 to 25½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1; Silver Drips, $1; White Drips, $1,10; medium brands, 70 to 80c; common, 50 to 60c.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10c; prime to choice, 11 to 11½c; Carolina, 12 to 12¼c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 90 to $1; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 70 to 75c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves, 50c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 14c for new.

BAR LEAD—12c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbitt's," 12c; "Oakley's," 11½c; Rosin, 4½ to 6c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $9,00; Lake Herring, $5,00; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $14,50; in half bbls, 50c more.

TOBACCO—Black 5s, 10s, ¼s and Louisville Navy, 72 to 75c; Wm. H. Grant's 10s and Navy, 80c; C. & D. Tobacco, 22c to 25c for best.

TEA—The market is firm and prices are higher for new crop. Choice Young Hyson, $1,75; fair, $1,50; common to good, $1 to $1,35; Oolong, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1, $1,25 and $1,35; good Porto Rico, $1 to $1,85, as to quality. Imperial, $1 to $1,85. Japan—Choice, $1,30; fair $1.

BUTTER—Prime fresh Roll is in rather better inquiry, but prices are no better, ranging from 18 to 20c.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and fresh packed may be quoted at 23 to 24c, some holders asking 25c.

HAY—Baled Hay is very dull, and with an unusually large supply and liberal arrivals, prices are $2 to $3 per ton lower; we now quote at $18 to $21. Wagon Hay, $18 to $24, and dull, also.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and wanted at $2,50 to $2,55. No demand whatever for Clover or Timothy.

SALT—Dull but unchanged: $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2 for small lots in store.

GRAIN—Wheat continues very dull, notwithstanding the supply is by no means large; prime Red cannot be quoted above $2,50, and there are but few buyers even at that. Oats dull and weak; sales of some 800 bushs, on wharf, in two lots, at 82 to 83c, and small sales in store at 85c. Rye is dull, though there is but little in market and not much in this section of the country; we continue to quote at $1,90. Corn is very dull, while prime Ear is in fair demand, with sales on wharf and track at $1,08 to $1,10.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues very dull but unchanged. Small sales at 12 to 13c for Peaches, and 6½ to 7¼c for Apples.

POTATOES—Continue very dull; we continue to note small sales of prime Peach Blows, in store at $1,35 to $1,40.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged; 14c for Shoulders; 16c to 18c and 18½c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 19¼ to 19½c for Plain, and 20 to 20¼c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 18¾ to 19c. Mess Pork, $28,50 to $29.

LARD OIL—Is steady but unchanged; we continue to quote at $1,50 for Extra No. 1, and $1,25 for No. 2.

FLOUR—The Flour market is dull and weak, with a drooping tendency. Buyers, in anticipation of a decline, are buying very sparingly, and sellers, with the same opinion of the market, are keeping down stocks as much as possible. We continue to quote at $10,50 to $11 for Spring Wheat; $11,75 to $12,25 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $10 to $10,25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

CRUDE—The market is quiet and while there is apparently a little firmer feeling, there is next to nothing doing, and prices, as yet, are without quotable change. We have but a single sale to report, 300 bbls for immediate delivery, at 10½c, bbls to be returned; quotations may be fairly given at 10¼c offered, and 11c asked, and as we have already stated, little or nothing doing. The offerings continue comparatively light, and the stock of spot oil in this market is pretty well reduced, and besides, it is in the hands of speculators, who, being men of ample means, are able to hold until they can get their price. Of late years the margin has been so small that small dealers have, by sheer force of circumstances, been compelled to retire from the business and seek other avocations. There was a time when money could be made by handling small quantities, but that day seems to have passed.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also a shade firmer to-day, which may be attributed to the improved character of the advices from Antwerp; as yet, however, the only improvement noticeable is a slightly increased demand, as prices, compared with yesterday, are but little, if any, better. We can report a sale of 1,000 bbls for immediate delivery at 28c, and 3,000 bbls, in lots, for the last half of June, at 28½c. July, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 29c, and August at 29½c to 30c.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

Mawhi'ey & Bro.	1800
Clark & Sumner	320
Fulton, M. & Co.	160
Fisher & Bro.	4100
J. C. Giddings	240

Baltimore Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, June 3.—Flour is nominal. Wheat is nominally unchanged. Corn is dull, and sales were made of white at $1,15, and yellow at $1,18. Oats dull and unchanged. Rye is dull. Provisions are more active and prices are unchanged.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

Colored Men as Voters in the Southern States.

The Albany (Georgia), News, a democratic journal, wrote after the recent election in Georgia, and the Atlanta Intelligencer, another democratic journal, copied without a sign of disapproval, the following reflections upon the results of this first election in that state in which the colored men voted:

"Early in the canvass we appealed to the white people of Middle and Upper Georgia to save Southern and Southwestern Georgia from the horrible fate that threatened. Heavy majorities for radicalism were naturally expected from the 'black belt,' and for the same reasons that induced this conviction, the white settlements were expected to go democratic. We are astonished at the reversal of this natural order of things, and feel so keenly the deep disgrace and stinging humiliation, that we dare not indulge our inclination to write."

"At one time we entertained a purpose to change our base, in the event of radical success, and seek repose among the white people in a different portion of the State; but the developments of the election have fastened upon our mind the conviction that the negro is a better man than the white scalawag, and that we should suffer by the change. There seems to be as much political virtue and integrity among the colored people of Southwestern Georgia, as exists among a large portion of whites in Middle and Upper Georgia, and we proudly assert that they are safer custodians of the franchise. We see no reason longer to oppose negro suffrage. We are disposed to make him a voter in order to rescue the State from carpet-baggers and scalawags."

A Considerable number of white Georgians, it seems, voted the Republican ticket, says the New York Post, while a number of the blacks voted with the democrats; and thereupon follow these words of the democratic writer. It would seem then, that the true qualification for a voter is that he shall vote the democratic ticket.

But the admission of the Albany News is important, because it shows that in Georgia the two parties are already divided upon other issues than that of color.

Democratic Progress in England.

The recent vote of the Commons on the Irish Church and Scotch Reform questions elicit the subjoined commentary from a co-emporary:

"The people of England, and the House as representing them, have determined to go on with that peaceful but thorough revolution to which the victory of the Union in our civil war gave the first impulse, and which has gathered strength with every recent political event, until it is now irresistable. Even the liberals console themselves, under the humiliating burden of a government of obstruction and without principle, on the ground that this revolution is inevitable, and indeed more than half accomplished; and that not even a tory ministry can do anything to affect the result. Thus the Pall Mall Gazette of May 4th says, in language which, even one year ago, would have seemed insane, but which now expresses the fixed convictions of the people: 'Almost all the old questions of principle have been or are in a fair way to be decided. That England is and must be virtually a democracy, with all that that involves, is a proposition which nothing but ignorance or folly can dispute, and there is very little doubt as to the sort of things which are included under that general phrase. In so far as that conclusion is accepted and acquiesced in, the great debate which has so long divided the nation into two camps is at an end, and the necessity for party government which arose from it is also anat end.'"

The Retirement of Mr. Stanton.

The Administration passes into the hands of Messrs. Chase, Fessenden & Co., and Mr. Stanton retires from office. Men who under oath voted to keep him there have also under oath voted the deed which makes his retirement necessary. It would probably be wise for Mr. Stanton to have remained until his successor was confirmed, thus compelling a good appointment. He no doubt feels that he has made all the sacrifice that can be expected at his hands, especially by gentlemen whose votes, whatever they may have been, and whatever they may promise to be, seem now to be governed by the deliberations of Mr. Thurlow Weed, Mr. Sheridan Shook and Mr. Hugh J. Hastings in the back parlors of the Astor House, as by any other human and palpable considerations.

Never among the eulogists of the War Secretary, we criticised him in the days of his power, and we can the more heartily and frankly commend him when his power is at an end. Whatever may have displeased us—fault of manner, impulses, what seemed at the time to be injustice, harshness, and impetuosity—all fade before the luster of his splendid service. For the present his work is done; but not, we trust, forever done. It only remains for us to honor him as a good and faithful servant, and to wish him in his retirement all the prosperity that should follow one who has lived a noble and illustrious career.—N. Y. Tribune.

CRIME IN TEXAS—A FEARFUL RECORD.—The official records of the Department of State show the following facts in regard to crime in Texas: For the year 1867, reports from seventeen counties show, 172 murders, assaults with intent to kill, 225. Reports from the Clerks of the District Courts, from fifty-eight counties, show that the following number of indictments were found in those counties from June 1st, 1865 to January 1st, 1866: Murders, 412; assaults with intent to kill, 437. From December 1st, 1867, to May 1st, 1868, four months (since the issuing of Gen. Hancock's order No. 40), there have been, in fifty-three counties, 187 murders and assaults with intent to kill, 113.—Austin (Texas) Republican.

MAJOR GENERAL SCHOFIELD, the new Secretary of War, is a native of Chatauqua county, New York, and was born September 29th, 1831. He is a graduate of West Point. When the war broke out in 1861, he was the Professor of Natural Philosophy in Washington University, St. Louis. He entered the army as Major of the First Missouri Infantry, participated gallantly in all the conspicuous engagements in the West and rose to the rank of Major General in the latter part of 1865. Being scarcely thirty-seven years of age, he is the youngest man who ever held the office of Secretary of War.

TO KEEP their workmen from drinking and gambling saloons, Doty & McFarlan, manufactures, Brooklyn, sometime since furnished a room in their factory with newspapers—daily, weekly and illustrated—and with means for games and amusements, lighted and warmed it, and gave its free use to their employes, male and female, about sixty in number. The experiment, they say, has proved a complete success. The hands work more cheerfully; saloons are forsaken for the reading room; no blue Mondays disturb the operations of the factory; and workmen and employers are in good humor.

The Presidential Race.

The Republicans had Grant on the ground promptly and ready for the race. He come up splendid He wuzn't so mighty immense, but he wuz clean-limbed, decently developt all over, and showed first-rate in the back and loins. His trainers pulled off his shoulders a few little dead weights which some uv his injoodishus backers hed chuckt onto him, sposin he cood carry everything.

Our people hed some difficulty in selecting a man to run agin him. Pendleton was trotted out, but Belmont pernounced him unfit; McClellan next, but Voorhees objected. Finally, Chase was selected to run the appinted race, and he wuz brought to the weighin stand. To the naked eye he was a splendid specimen, and he come up to the stand so gallant that notwithstanding he carried in his hand a silver pitcher wich the niggers uv Cincinnati give him for defendin a fugitive from Kentucky, our people cheered him vociferous. Tall, strong and muskler-lookin, in good flesh, deep chested, broad-shouldered, strong backt, he wuz ez perfect a specimen ez I ever beheld, and all felt confident that he wood hev no trouble in beating his opponent out uv site. He come up to she stand gorgeous, accompanied by Trumbull, Fessenden, Grimes, Johnson and sich, who hed him in tow.

At this pint Vallandygum, Peerse, Voorhees, Morrissey and Wood, who hed charge uv our arrangements, took him in hand. "We most prepare our man," sed they.

"Take orf this ablishn coat," said Voorhees.

"And this imparshel suffrage vest," said Morrissey; "the nigger hezn't the moral qualifications for the ballot."

"And this free soil shirt," sed Wood.

"And that anti-fugitive slave law wig," said Voorhees.

"And them ekal justice shoulder-braces," sed Peerse.

"And them humanitarian pants," shreeked Wood.

"We can't abide none uv these things," yelled the crowd. "Peel! peel! All uv these yoo got from the ablishnists, free-soilers and Republicans. We'll nun uv 'em."

The silver pitcher he carried in his hand they trampled into the mud, and one by one the obnoxious garments wuz pulled off from him. Heavens! wat a change. Ez they wuz removed he shrunk. When the coat was taken off he wuzn't so broad and massive; when the vest wuz gone he wuz positively flat chested; when the shoulder braces wuz he removed he became hump-backed; and when the pants wuz snaked off he stood afore us the merest skeleton I ever beheld—a weak, shaky, wheazin' skeleton. Our folks looked disappointed, but it wuz too late to change. A loose, two-sided wrapper was thrown over him, Governor English climbed onto his shoulders, Vallandygum jumped into one pocket, and Fernandy Wood into the other, the brass band tooted, the crowd yelled, he made one convulsiv start, but in vain. The stiffnin wuz all out uv him. His poor, weak knees gave way, his back doubled up, and he came to the ground, every bone in him rattlin ez he fell, while Grant made the race serenely.—Nasby.

THE Baltimore American gives the following scale of wages at present paid mechanics and laborers in that city: Bricklayers, $5 per day; house carpenters, $2.50 to $3; stone masons, $4.75 to $4, the bosses charging $4.50, which includes superintending and general oversight; gas fitters, $4; plumbers, $4.50 to $5, for even ordinary workmen; cabinet makers in the city generally work by the piece, but their daily earnings may be put down at from $2 to $3; house painters, $3; machinists, $4; molders, $4; boiler makers, $3.50 to $4; marble workers, $4; hod carriers, from $2.25 to $2.50, according to the elevation of the building, and laborers $1.50 to $2.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Fourth Annual Convention of Sunday School Teachers.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at half-past nine o'clock yesterday morning, by the President, after which half an hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The committee appointed to prepare resolutions in regard to the death of Mr. Newkirk, submitted the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His unerring wisdom, to take unto himself his friend and servant, the beloved President of this Association, Matthew Newkirk,

Resolved, That while we cannot have but a keen sense of loss in being deprived of such an efficient, careful and thorough helper, especially at this point in the Sabbath School history of the State, we yet bow in humble reverence to the Divine will.

Resolved, That we cherish the example of our departed brother in his unaffected piety, true gentleness, simplicity and purity of Christian character; in his untiring activity in the Christian life; in his tender love for little children; in his abounding hospitality to all friends of Christ without distinction, and unstinted liberality in the transaction of the Sunday School work.

Resolved, That cherishing his good name as a precious legacy, we will, God helping, go forward in the work which, for more than half a century, he gave himself with such unselfish devotion.

Resolved, That we tender to the widow and relatives of our beloved brother, deceased, our loving sympathy, and pray that the consolation of Christ may be abundantly administered to them in this hour of their trial.

Pending the adoption of the resolutions, feeling tributes were paid to the memory and character of the deceased by Rev. Dr. Howard, Rev. Mr. Scovel, Hon. B. Rush Bradford, the President, and others, after which the resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Rev. Alfred Taylor, State Secretary, then gave practical illustrations of blackboard teaching, in which he was followed by Rev. Mr. Peltz.

A motion was made that the question of printing the proceedings of the Convention be referred to a special committee, with instructions to report at the afternoon session.

The chairman announced that the next business in order was the selection of a place for holding the next session of the Convention.

Invitations were tendered from Williamsport and Harrisburg. Upon a vote being taken Williamsport, Lycoming county, was selected, the time being left to be fixed by the Executive Committee, and the Sunday School Teachers' Institute of Williamsport.

Mr. Cummings, of Philadelphia, offered a series of resolutions, referring to the progress now making in the Sunday School work, and urging the organization of County Associations as one great aid in furthering the cause. The resolutions were laid over for further consideration, and the Convention adjourned until half-past two o'clock p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The exercises were opened at the appointed hour by singing the hymn commencing,

"I love thy kingdom, Lord,"

followed with prayer by Rev. Shadrach.

After the singing of another hymn, the chairman introduced Prof. Osborn, of Easton, who presented his theory of teaching sacred geography, "so as to instruct and to please." A large map of the Holy Land, prepared by the Professor, who has traveled extensively in that country, was hung on the wall behind the pulpit, of which frequent use was made to elucidate his method. The address was replete with happy illustrations and instructive suggestions, and was listened to with marked attention. At its close a number of questions were asked by persons in the audience who desired fuller information of the geography of the country.

The convention then engaged in singing a hymn, after which Rev. S. B. Barnitz, of Wheeling, delivered an address on the subject of Teachers' meetings, in which he said that the most essential requisite outside of earnest prayer, for a successful teachers' meeting, was to have all the teachers impressed with the fact of their own personal interest in the matter. Sing one or two verses of a lively hymn, have short, fervent prayers, and let each teacher come prepared to engage earnestly in the exercises, and the meeting could not fail to be, both very pleasant, and very profitable.

In answer to a communication it was announced that the ever liberal Pennsylvania Railroad Company had made half-fare arrangements for the convenience of those persons on their line who wished to attend the convention.

REPORT OF THE FINANCIAL COMMITTEE.

Rev. Wylie, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the following report:

WHEREAS, It is of the utmost importance that the State Sabbath School Association should have a liberal support pledged at the commencement of the current year, for the employment of a Secretary, printing and circulating documents and other essential work,

Resolved, That we secure at least $5,000 for the purpose of closing up unsettled accounts for the past year and carrying on the work before us in the coming year.

Resolved, That we raise now by subscriptions and pledges of individuals, churches and Sabbath Schools as much of this fund as possible.

Resolved, That we recommend the Business Committee to devise such plan as shall induce every school in the State to contribute to the support of the State organization.

In accordance with the resolutions it was announced that subscriptions would be received towards the $5,000. Following was the result:

D. Robinson, First Presbyterian Church	$100
W. T. Wylie, for State of Illinois	100
Cash	100
Edward Plummer	100
G. W. Bingham, Third Presbyterian Church and Sabbath School	100
Dr. Howard, on behalf of his church	100
Philadelphia Mission Schools	100

The committee appointed to consider its expediency, reported that they deemed it advisable to publish in pamphlet form for circulation the proceedings of the Convention, and recommended that Superintendents and Teachers be requested to subscribe and circulate them as far as possible, the cost not to exceed $2.50 per copy.

The report was accepted and Mr. Gardner appointed chairman of the Publishing Committee.

A delegate offered a resolution requesting each Superintendent in the State to read before his Sunday School the memorial resolutions relating to the death of Matthew Newkirk.

OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR.

The Nominating Committee, to select officers for the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association for the ensuing year, presented the following report, which was accepted:

Cummings, DeWatt C. Moore, Robert B. Sterling, Rev. Dr. F. Wylie, Charles F. Hazeltine. John W. Sexton, Treasurer. Rev. Alfred Taylor, Secretary.

Adjourned with prayer by the Chairman, to meet at 7½ o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session commenced about 8 o'clock. The attendance was much larger than at any of the previous sessions, and the proceedings are attracting more attention as the Convention progresses.

Devotional exercises were first in order, Dr. Bull of Allegheny leading in prayer.

The following additional Vice Presidents were appointed: Rev. A. B. Miller, Waynesburg, Greene county. Rev. A. D. Hare, Uniontown, Fayette county.

Theodore E. Perkins, of New York, a distinguished composer of music, addressed the Convention on the subject of Sabbath School singing. Mr. Perkins in a few brief and pointed remarks, gave his theory of teaching children to sing, showing that the two most important points on which they should be instructed were pronounciation and time. In answer to the question "What shall we sing?" he read a beautiful selection from the New York Musical Mirror, which advised the singing of everything that was good and befitting the place. "Sing any way, every way, so that souls are brought to Jesus. Sing anything if only we may clasp our children on the 'Golden Strand' by and by—by and by;". He then requested the audience to consider themselves as a large singing school and proceeded to give them a few lessons in music commingled with explanations and the singing of some delightful Sunday School songs.

This part of the exercises was exceedingly interesting and was apparently highly enjoyed by all present.

Rev. Wylie said he believed unfinished business was always in order, and he would therefore bring forward the matter of raising the funds in accordance with the report of the Finance Committee, which had been rendered at the afternoon session, and part of the money subscribed.

The following additional subscriptions were received:

Mrs. E. F. Denny	$100 00
Rev. Thos. Johnson	100 00
Westmoreland S. S. Association.	109 00
Rev. Mr. Peltz (Chairman)	100 00
Christ M. E. Church	100 00
Sixth Presbyterian Church	50 00
Louis G. Vale, Philadelphia	50 00
Lawrence County	225 00

The subscription slip being passed round quite a number were received, increasing the aggregate amount of the evening's subscription to $1,300, which, added to the $700 received in the afternoon, made the total amount received $2,000.

The Question Box was then opened and answers to the questions given by Rev. Alfred Taylor. Some of the questions were more humorous than profitable, and occasioned great merriment, while others developed considerable thought.

This was the closing exercise of the evening and the Convention adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock this morning.

AMERICAN PROTESTANT ASSOCIATION.

Meeting of the Worthy Grand Lodge—The Financial Condition of the Order.

A meeting of the Worthy Grand Lodge of the American Protestant Association was held at the hall of the Association in this city yesterday.

The Lodge convened at nine o'clock A. M., and was opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

There were thirty-seven representatives present. R. W. G. Master David L. Smith and R. W. G. Secretary John Craig, and a number of Past Masters were in attendance.

A communication from the Managers of the Orphan Asylum, asking the favorable consideration of the order, was read and referred to a special committee.

The Committee on the valedictory of the R. W. G. officers submitted their report, which was read and accepted.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to the officers for the faithful and impartial manner in which they had performed their duties.

The report of the Finance Committee was read, from which it appears that the Order is in a sound financial condition. Amounts paid out, $1,031 09; balance in the hands of the Treasurer, $1,765 85.

The report was received and adopted.

The Committee on the State of the Order presented an encouraging report.

The Committee on Printing reported all business on their hands completed, the bills for which were correct and ordered to be paid.

The reports were received.

A Committee to revise the Constitution was appointed and directed to have the amendments included in the printed minutes of the present session.

Representatives to the R. W. G. Lodge were appointed and instructed to vote in favor of the proposed amendments to the Constitution.

Resolutions relative to a change in the private work of the order were adopted.

A resolution abolishing the percentage system of taxation and substituting a per capita tax of thirty cents per annum was adopted.

The R. W. G. Master, David Smith, was announced and introduced by the R. W. G. Secretary, John Craig. He was received with the honors of the order.

After the transaction of business of a private character, and the adoption of a resolution of thanks to the Western Brethren for their courtesies to the Eastern Brethren, prayer by the Chaplain, singing the Star Spangled Banner, the W. G. Lodge was declared closed sine die.

Narrow Escape.

Michael Magraw, who was engaged in raising a two story frame house on Lacock street, Allegheny, yesterday, belonging to Samuel Williamson, for the purpose of putting a story beneath it, narrowly escaped serious injury. The house had been raised to the desired height, and the necessary props placed under it, which it appears were not placed on a secure foundation, and when Mr. Magraw was removing the screws by which the building had been raised, the props on one side sank into the ground, causing the entire structure to tumble down. Mr. M. being under the building at the time, had his hand slightly injured and only escaped serious injury and perhaps death, in consequence of one of the heavy timbers in the lower part of the building catching upon the cellar wall, thus preventing him from being crushed to death beneath the ruins.

Murder in Cookstown.—Monday night last another murder was committed in Cookstown, Fayette county, which is the third within three years. Our information is very brief, in regard to the affair. It appears, however, that a man named Lamb, and William Mullin, were fighting in a bar-room, when Mullin drew a pistol and shot Lamb, killing him instantly. The murderer is still at large.

The Congressional Convention of the 23d District—Hon. Thomas Williams Unanimously Nominated for Congress by the Allegheny Portion of the District.

We furnished our readers yesterday with a very brief report of the proceedings of the 23d Congressional District Convention, owing to the fact that the body transacted its business so expeditiously and promptly as to adjourn before our reporter reached the place of holding the meeting. Herewith we annex the names of delegates in attendance and the business transacted.

The Convention was called to order at ten o'clock by Capt. Hugh S. Fleming, of McClure township, upon whose motion T. H. Nevin, Esq., of Sewickley, was chosen as Chairman.

The organization was completed by the election of Dr. Dale, Wm. Sample, Col. George Gerst, James C. Lewis and John Miller as Vice Presidents, and John G. Brown and James McBrier, Esqrs., as Secretaries.

CREDENTIALS OF DELEGATES.

The Chairman stated that the Convention was ready to receive the credentials of the delegates, which were handed in as follows:

ALLEGHENY.

First ward—John F. Jennings, Alex. Hanna.
Second ward—John K. Brown, S. H. Geyer.
Third ward, 1st precinct—Arthur Hobson, James McBrier. 2d precinct—Col. George Gerst, C. Schleiper.
Fourth ward, 1st precinct—James W. Murray, A. C. Patterson. 2d precinct—H. W. Aufterhide, H. H. Beurhost.
Fifth ward—John Heath, Alex. Patterson.
Sixth ward—Wm. Millson, Wm. Cunningham.
Seventh ward—A. Messe, Mr. Wettach.
Eighth ward—Wm. Krebs, H. F. Eggers.

BOROUGHS.

Sewickley—Dr. Wm. Woods, T. H. Nevin.
Millvale—John G. Brown, H. B. Lyon.
Bellevue—Hugh Forrester, Col. Thos. M. Bayne.
Sharpsburg—J. C. Lewis, Jacob Covode.
Tarentum—R. S. McCall, W. H. Humes.

TOWNSHIPS.

Ross—Hon. John Brown, D. H. Cunningham.
McCandless—R. Gupton, O. F. Vought.
East Deer—Dr. T. F. Dale, Archibald Pillow.
Shaler—John Miller, Wm. Sample.
Fawn—J. M. Gross, John Bunter.
Marshall—Wm. Tortman, Jacob Borg.
Harrison—E. H. Bracken, Chas. Fisher.
Ohio—J. C. Morrow, B. Duff.
Reserve—A. Beckert, G. W. Evans.
Pine—E. Logan, Richard Pinkerton.
West Deer—S. Haslett, S. L. McCallister.
Indiana—Wm. M. Darlington, S. Hundry.
Sewickley—D. E. Nevin, Samuel Neeley.
McClure—Capt. Hugh S. Fleming, R. Davis.
Richland—C. Austin, John S. Dickson.
Hampton—Robert Scott, Robert McIlhenny.

James W. Murray, Esq., moved that where there is but one delegate present from a district, that such delegate be allowed to vote also for his colleague. Carried.

The Chairman stated the Convention had been called but for one purpose, that of electing three conferees to meet with the conferees from the counties of Armstrong and Butler, to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-third District, and said that they might as well proceed at once to business.

Mr. Arthur Hobson moved that Hon. Thos. Williams be declared the unanimous choice of the Convention as their candidate for Congress.

The motion was carried without a dissenting voice.

The following gentlemen were placed in nomination for conferees:

Dr. Thos. F. Dale, of East Deer, S. H. Geyer, of Second ward, Allegheny; Capt. Hugh S. Fleming, of McClure; John Heath, of Fifth ward, Allegheny; John Megraw, of Fourth ward, Allegheny.

Mr. John F. Jennings moved that, before proceeding to voting, a committee of three be appointed on resolutions.

The motion was adopted and the Chair appointed Messrs. John F. Jennings, S. M. Geyer and Samuel Neeley as said committee.

The Committee then retired.

The Convention then proceeded to mark for Conferees, and, upon the vote being counted, it was announced as follows:

Dr. T. F. Dale	44	John McGraw	22
S. H. Geyer	44	John Heath	21
H. S. Fleming	40	H. B. Lyon	21

The Chairman stated that Messrs. Dale, Geyer and Fleming had received the highest number of votes and were, therefore, elected conferees.

The Committee on Resolutions here appeared, and through their chairman, Mr. Jennings, submitted the following report:

Resolved, That in presenting the name of Thomas Williams again to the Republican voters of the 23d District, the people of Allegheny county only recognize the vital importance of obtaining a well-tried and faithful representative, whose distinguished position and services have given to him a national reputation, while they have reflected honor on the choice of the people by whom he was chosen.

Resolved, That in looking to the difficulty of commanding at any time the combined ability, integrity, experience and influence so desirable in a representative, we would regard the withdrawal of such a man as Mr. Williams from the councils of the nation, at such a time as this, only to give place to a new and untried successor, as not only a great blunder, but a serious loss as well to the general public service as to the great Republican District whose credit has been so well sustained by him.

Resolved, That while not recognizing the propriety of any reference to county lines, and disclaiming any pretensions on the score of population, or even the proportion of the great Republican majority of the district, which is furnished by themselves as considerations which cannot properly enter into a question when superior fitness for the place is the only legitimate test, they feel warranted in the assurance that the mere accidental location of the candidate will not be allowed to deprive the district of the services of a Representative, whose superior qualifications are so well known and so fully recognized in every part of the district, and whose reputation is as much the property of one county as another.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the platform adopted by the National Convention at Chicago.

Resolved, That in the nominees of said Convention—Gen. Grant for President and Schuyler Colfax for Vice President—we have good and reliable men, to whom we pledge the support of the Union Republican party of this district.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Mr. Jennings also presented a series of resolutions, handed to him by a staunch Republican, not a delegate, for the action of the Convention, which strongly recommended the adoption of the Crawford County system in the 23d district. These resolutions after considerable debate were withdrawn.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

Marshall's Fine Engraved Portrait of General Grant.

We bespeak attention of the countless friends of the great General and great man, U. S. Grant, to this most admirable work of art and likeness of their faverite. Among our modern artists, we believe, Marshall is the only one who engraves from his own originals, and whether as painter or engraver he needs no higher testimony of his skill than is furnished in his portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Grant, each of which challenges comparison with all others extant, and they illustrate with equal force the fidelity of the likeness and the skill of the engraver, so that whether as a specimen of the highest order of art or graphic portrait of the hero and sage, this picture of General Grant should adorn every public hall, and the library, hall or parlor of every citizen throughout the land to whom the subject had endeared himself by his private virtues or his great public services.

It is furnished only to subscribers, but at a very moderate price. Mr. Foster, 68 Fifth street, is the sole agent for this district. We advise those whom he may not call upon to call upon him and possess themselves of this elegant work of art and this best of all the likenesses of the country's great favorite.

Grand Tournament—Imposing Procession—The Crowning of the Queen of Love and Beauty.

Under the auspices and management of a number of our most intelligent and leading colored citizens, there was held yesterday in this neighborhood a second grand annual tournament. The occasion had long been the theme of conversation in the fashionable circles of our large and respected element of colored population, and most active preparations had been going on to render the tournament an exhibition worthy the chivalrous character of those who were to participate in the excitements of the animating contest. From an early hour yesterday morning the colored people were actively engaged in getting ready for the celebration of the event, which to them, at least, would make memorable the day.

At half-past two o'clock the band of spirited Knights assembled, those who were to enter into the bloodless combat where skill, daring, dash and brilliancy of movement rather than more sanguinary characteristics would crown their efforts with glory, and forming into line of procession proceeded to the Union Park, Allegheny, for the tournament, preceded by a brass band, and followed in a large number of vehicles by ladies and gentlemen who were to participate in the festive occasion as on-lookers. The procession was imposing. The Knights, all able bodied, muscular men, gaudily attired and mounted on spirited chargers gaily and caparisoned for the mimic arena of conflict, formed a pageantry of magnificent character. On arriving at the Park, where a large number of ladies and gents, both white and colored, had assembled, the Knights dashed around the arena several times, giving ample evidence of their superior equestrian abilities and attainments. The judges having taken their places the following Knights were entered for the contest:

1. Knight of Lady Gay—Geo. Anderson.
2. Knight of Baltimore—Robert Stevenson.
3. Knight of Jack Sheppard—John Bell.
4. Knight of Wit and Humor—Scott Taper.
5. Knight of the Star of the West—Benj. Mallory.
6. Knight of the Lilly of the Valley—Wm. Douglas.
7. Knight of the White Cross—John Askins.
8. Knight of the Star of the East—A. Iverson.
9. Knight of Richmond—Chas. Williams.
10. Knight of Dick Turpin—H. Worthington.
11. Knight of Pittsburgh—Charles Douglas.
12. Knight of Shenandoah Valley—H. Hemming.
13. Knight of Kit Carson—Chas. Johnson.
14. Knight of Red Man of the Forest—Jos. Murray.

Chief Marshal—George Lovett.
Aids—Wm. Lovett and Allen Williams.
Acting Captain—Wm. Chatman.
Judges—Groom McKnight, Steele Jackson.

The tournament was very brilliant, and all the gallant Knights displayed unusual dexterity in handling the spear and sending it home through the treacherous rings. At times the enthusiasm of the vast congregation of ladies and gents assembled was intense, especially when evoked by some brilliant deed of daring on the part of any of the Knights.

The decision was awarded to the victorious knight Sir Scott Taper, who had the exquisite pleasure of crowning Miss Mary Arnet as Queen of Love and Beauty. Sir John Bell came next in order and selected Miss Pulpress, a graceful and pretty maiden, as First Maid of Honor. Sir George Anderson was third on the list and selected Miss Mary Lovett as Second Maid of Honor, a choice which showed his good taste and judgment. Sir Henry Worthington selected Miss Maggie Cole as Third Maid of Honor, another excellent choice. The procession then reformed, and the entire party came to the city and after supper repaired to City Hall, where a grand promenade and and festival was held. In the early part of the evening Prof. S. A. Neale, of Avery College, one of our most gifted and learned colored citizens, crowned the Queen of Love and Beauty, and delivered a very eloquent and beautiful address pertinent to the occasion. The remaining portion of the evening was spent in general enjoyment, tete-a-tetes and social conversation and promenades, and all retired highly elated with the success of the tournament. The affair reflected much credit to our colored people, and was marked with that order and decorum which is so often wanting in the festive occasions of the paler portions of our community.

Pennsylvania State Convention of Universalists.

The annual meeting of this body was held in the Universalist Church, Pittsburgh, June 3d, 1868.

Clerical and Lay delegates were in attendance from the Philadelphia Union Association, the Lake Erie and the Pittsburgh Associations.

Rev. Moses Baum, of Philadelphia, was chosen President.

The revised constitution, submitted at the lost annual meeting, was adopted finally, with an amendment providing for the admission of delegates from Sunday Schools as well as churches.

Certain recommendations from the Union School General Convention were acted upon, and an amendment to the constitution of that body, adopted at its late session at Baltimore, was ratified.

Committees on the State of the Church and Sunday Schools were appointed to report at the next session.

Rev. A. Bosserman and J. C. Buffum, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and Hon. Henry D. Moore, of Philadelphia, were chosen as delegates to the next session of the U. S. General Convention, which will meet in Providence, R. I., in September next.

Various matters connected with denomination interests in the State were considered.

The convention adjourned to meet in the evening to hear the occasional sermon by Rev. C. L. Shipman, of Giard, Pa.

Public religious services will be held in the Church at 10½ o'clock, on Thursday morning, June 4th.

European Travel.

Every season the number of those who make the trip to Europe greatly increases, owing to the increased facilities for making the passage, and the fact that it is not so great an undertaking as was at one time supposed. Parties contemplating the trip should bear in mind that there exists in this city an office where passage by nearly all of the most popular ocean steamship lines, can be secured at the lowest rates charged at the principal offices in New York, and where plans of the different vessels are kept, berths allotted, and every information given. We refer, of course, to the agency of Mr. William Bingham, Jr., located at No. 73 Fifth street, (Chronicle building.) Mr. Bingham has had several years experience in this business, is thoroughly posted on all steamship matter, and we can cheerfully recommend him to the public. Such an agency as he keeps is a necessity and he should be encouraged.

Slight Fire.

Yesterday morning about nine o'clock the dwelling house occupied by John Filson, Esq., corner of Sandusky and Robinson streets, Allegheny, was found to be on fire. The alarm was given from box 37, and in a few minutes the entire Fire Department was on the ground. Their services, however, were not required, as a few buckets of water thrown on the flames quenched them, the only damage being the burning of a hole in the roof of the building. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks issuing from a furnace chimney of a fonndry near by. The alarm given from box 37 was perfect—striking the gong in the Central office and going through to every engine house in the whole telegraph circuit.

Probable Murder at Dunbar Station.—On Monday evening two men, named Miller and Hiles, ore miners at Dunbar Furnace, Fayette county, were engaged in a drunken row when Hiles struck Miller on the head with a stone fracturing his skull. Hiles was arrested and committed to jail at Uniontown to await the result of Miller's injuries, which will probably prove fatal.

Imposition by Hackmen.

Monday evening a gentleman came to the city on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and, desiring to leave the next morning on the Washington stage, inquired for Hare's Hotel. Ed. McGan, a hackman, hearing the inquiry, proposed to take him to the hotel in a carriage. The gentleman refused to take a carriage, and finally went to the St. Lawrence Hotel and took lodging for the night. He was aroused the next morning at four o'clock by McGan, who informed him if he desired to go on the morning stage he would have to be in a hurry, as it would start in a few minutes. The gentleman got up, and thinking he would not have time to walk to the hotel in time to take the coach, was induced to ride in McGan's carriage. He got in and was taken down Penn street to an alley near the Point, when the carriage was stopped and McGan ordered him to get out, telling him he was at the hotel. On getting out of the carriage McGan demanded three dollars, which he refused to pay. After some parlying he was forced to pay two dollars, and McGan was insisting upon the payment of the other dollar when a policeman came along, and, at the request of the stranger, arrested the hackman, who offered to pay all the money back if they would let him go. His bid was not accepted, however, and he was taken to the Mayor's office, where, after a hearing, he was fined five dollars and costs, and required to refund one dollar and fifty cents of the money.

Yesterday a similar case occurred, in which Jas. M'Cord was the shark. A Mr. Broadwater and his wife, from Maryland, arrived in the city on the Connellsville Railroad, en route for the West, at ten o'clock. Desiring to go to Union Depot, he was prevailed upon by M'Cord to take a carriage. On arriving at Union Depot the shark demanded two dollars, and by means of threats obtained it. Mr. B. was not satisfied with the charge, and made complaint before the Mayor, who issued a warrant for the arrest of M'Cord, and after a hearing, required him to refund one dollar, when he was discharged upon payment of the costs.

We are at a loss to know why the ordinance requiring all hackmen to keep a card with a list of charges upon it posted in the hacks is not enforced? The cards have been printed, but we have never yet seen one inside of a hack or carriage. If there is any reason why this ordinance should not be enforced, it is the duty of the Mayor to make it known to Councils, and have it repealed. Will the proper committee investigate the matter? The Mayor informs us that he will impose a fine in every instance brought before him of imposition by hackmen, but a strict enforcement of the ordinance would prevent impositions, and also the necessity of imposing fines.

Sent to the Hospital.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. Mary Spasher, of rather respectable appearance, and tolerably well dressed, came to the Mayor's office, on Tuesday evening, and asked to be conducted to the depot. Her strange and excited manner attracted attention, and upon further inquiry she stated that she came from New York and desired to go to Chicago where her husband, who is a fur dresser, resides. It was evident from her manner that she was laboring under an attack of mania potu, and she was taken in charge by an officer and locked up. During the evening she became more violent in her demonstrations, and seemed to be in constant dread of persons who, she said, were all around her and threatening her with punishment for some crime. She fancied there was a dead woman in the cell with her, and protested that she was not the murderess. Yesterday morning she was worse than ever, and was sent by Mr. Fortune to Mercy Hospital. The Mayor has telegraphed to New York and Chicago to see if her friends can be found.

Select Social Picnic.—We notice with pleasure that a Select Social Picnic will be held at McFarland's Grove on the 16th of this month. The committee of arrangements are gentlemen well and favorably known, and the same that conducted the Charity Ball held in February, which gave such general satisfaction. From the very liberal arrangements now being made for the Picnic, and the popularity of its managers, we predict for it that success which liberal management deserves.

Illicit Distillery.—Edward Frazier was on Tuesday arrested at his residence in Anandale, Butler county, on a charge of illicit distilling made on the oath of the Inspector of Internal Revenue, for the 23d district. He had a hearing yesterday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Gamble, and was held in the sum of two thousand dollars to answer the charge at the August term of the United States Court.

Larceny of Brass.—John Thornton made information before Alderman Taylor, several days since, charging Michael Kennedy with larceny. He alleged that the accused did take, steal and carry away a lot of brass scraps from a flat in the Allegheny river. A warrant was issued, but the officers did not succeed in getting hold of Michael until yesterday, when he was committed to jail in default of bail for a hearing.

Correction.—In Wednesday's GAZETTE we published an item in which we stated that Mr. D. R. Eckers had been knocked down in a political discussion. This was a mistake. That gentlemen is one of our most esteemed and respectable citizens, and never engages in any such affair as the one falsely reported to us, and we make this correction out of justice and on our own motion.

Lewdness.—John Connelly, a resident of the Ninth ward, was in a beastly state of intoxication yesterday, and annoyed his neighbors by an indecent exposure of his person on Penn street. He was arrested on oath of Joseph Thomas, and after a hearing before Alderman Taylor, was held to bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court to answer a charge of lewdness.

Abused a Boy.—Margaret Hunt made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging a cook at Holtzheimer's saloon with assault and battery. She alleges that the accused, whose name we did not learn, assaulted and beat her son, Joseph Hunt, a boy of about ten years of age, in a brutal and shameful manner. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The Seventh Anniversary of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny "Home of the Friendless" will be held this afternoon at three o'clock, in the Union Baptist Church, on Grant street, near Sixth, Pittsburgh. Interesting exercises may be expected. The public is cordially invited to attend. By order of the Board.

T. A. TREVOR, Secretary.

In Trouble Again.—Mrs Mary A. Brooks made information before the Mayer yesterday against John Robinson for surety of the peace. She alleges that Robinson came to her house on Townsend street, Eighth ward, Tuesday night, broke open the door and threatened her with violence. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

Surety of the Peace.—Margaret Furt made information before Alderman McMasters, against Mary Hold, for surety of the peace. She alleges that Mrs. Hold threatened to burn her house down and also threatened to take her life. The parties reside in Spring alley, Fifth ward. A warrant was issued.

Annual Meeting.—This afternoon, at three o'clock, the annual meeting of the Directors and inmates of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Home for the Friendless will be held in the Union Baptist Church, Grant street. The exercises will be of a highly interesting character.

Amusements.

LA RUE'S MINSTRELS.—The celebrated Carnival Minstrels are drawing large audiences at the Opera House. The entertainments are excellent, as all who have attended can fully testify. Mr. La Rue distributed among the audience last night one hundred dollars as usual. The following gentlemen held lucky numbers: S. A. Price, Portland, Ohio, twenty-five dollars; S. A. Harkle, Miss Bankman, R. H. Clark and John Wagner, ten dollars each. The remainder of the one hundred dellars was distributed in prizes of one dollar.

THEATRE.—"Undone" is most completely done at the Old Theatre. It is a capital burlesque, and is put upon the boards in admirable style. There are numerous other attractions there this week, and the house is crowded every night.

MUSEUM.—Major Burnell continues to add new attractions to his Museum at Franklin Hall, so that the visitor always finds something new every day. The collection of natural curiosities is exceedingly large and rare.

Another Testimony of Skill.

I have been troubled with a very severe pain in the stomach. I have tried nearly everything I heard of, but could not get permanent relief, but since I began Dr. Aborn's medicines I feel nearly as well as ever. I have not felt so well for years. I have gained very much in flesh, at least ten pounds within one month.
